FIERCE BATTLE OUTSIDE TRIPOLI

Turks Report 1,600 Italians Were Killed or Wounded in the Fight.

AEROPLANES TO DROP BOMBS

Italians Have Thirteen Aerial Fighting Craft—Italy Will Bombard Two Turkish Cities— Operations at Tripoli.

Frankfort, On-The-Maine, Oct. 13.—The Frankfurte Zeitung's special Constantinople correspondent forwards a dispatch dated Tripoli saying:

"A fierce engagement occurred between Turks and Italians on a hill in the neighborhood of the city. The Italians lost 1,600 killed, and wounded. The Turkish casualties were slight."

There is no confirmation of the dispatch, which is at variance with recent Tripolitan news reaching here through other channels.

To Bombard Turkish Cities.

Rome (via Frontier), Oct. 13.—It is semi-officially asserted that Italy has notified the powers that she will send a fleet to attack Smurna and Saloniki if other massacres of Italians like those reported by consuls have taken place on the Hedjaz railway on the boundary line between Egypt and Syria, occur. The consular reports stated that 30 Italian railroad laborers were massacred at Kerak, Syria, early in October.

Gen. Valleri has been entrusted with the entire work of organizing the occupation of Tripoli. It is stated that the cost of occupation is estimated at $60,000 and the occupation is expected to continue at least 20 months before Tripoli can be entrusted to a civil administration.

In addition to 11 aeroplanes, two dirigible balloons will be sent to Tripoli to be used in scouting and also to drop bombs in camps of the enemy. The bombs have been expressly manufactured for this purpose and it is said their explosive force will cover a wide range. The foreign military attaches are taking keen interest in the plans for aerial attacks upon the enemy, believing that they will demonstrate the practical utility of airships in warfare.

JUSTICE HARLAN ILL.

Distinguished Jurist Suffering With Bronchitis—Acute Attack.

Washington, Oct. 13.—Associate Justice John Marshall Harlan, of the Supreme Court of the United States, is suffering from an attack of acute bronchitis at his home in this city. Justice Harlan is 78 years old and his condition is regarded as grave because of his advanced years.

Justice Harlan has been ill since last Monday, when he contracted a severe cold. The following day he did not occupy his seat on the bench. Chief Justice White then announced that Justice Harlan was ill, though, as it was known that a cold had caused his indisposition, no alarm was felt. During that day, however, Justice Harlan became more seriously affected and on Wednesday bronchitis developed. Today and tonight the patient had high fever, which, however, abated toward midnight. Its abatement permitted Justice Harlan to sink into restful slumber, whereupon Misses Laura and Ruth Harlan and Interstate Commerce Commissioner James Harlan and Jdhn M. Harlan, Jr., of Chicago, daughters and sons of the justice, who had been summoned to his bedside, gave up their vigil for the night. Some hope was given by this peaceful rest of the patient, though the attending physicians said as he left the sick room that Justice Harlan was in a very serious condition.

Dr. Richard C. Harlan, another son, is in Europe. He has been cabled regarding his father's critical illness and is expected to return by the first steamer.

THE MEXICO STORM.

Several Dead and Much Property Loss is Reported.

Tueson, Ariz., Oct. 13.—Several persons are reported dead in Guaymas and vicinity and property damage estimated at $300,000 incurred as a result of heavy rainfall and wind that visited the west coast of Mexico last Tuesday afternoon.

A number of other persons are reported dead at Ortiz, 30 miles north of Guaymas, but none of these deaths nor those reported at Guaymas is officially confirmed.

The rainfall that swept Guaymas and the Sonoro west coast, was the heaviest in 50 years. The only storm approaching it in intensity was that of 1866. It was estimated that the rainfall in the foothills was between 20 and 30 inches.

NO SEAT, NO FARE, SAYS JURY.

Railway Passenger Wins Suit After Arrest for Withholding Ticket.

Suffolk, Va., Oct. 13.—According to a decision of a Nansemond circuit court jury today, a railroad passenger need not surrender his ticket unless a seat be furnished.

Frank W. Jones, alleging inability to get a seat, refused to give up his ticket on the Norfolk & Western, was arrested for trespass and acquitted. Bringing suit against the company, Jones got a verdict for $350. There is likely to be an appeal on the part of the railroad.

FOR A GREAT NAVAL DISPLAY

Mobilization of Atlantic and Pacific Fleets of United States at New York and Los Angeles, Respectively—Strength.

Washington, Oct. 13.—The mobilization of the Atlantic and Pacific fleets at New York and Los Angeles October 30th to November 2nd, will mark the gathering of the greatest naval force that ever floated in the waters of this hemisphere.

This probably will be the last assembling of present day warships with the United States of America standing second in the list of great maritime powers. For it is certain that at the rate of development of ship building plans of Germany, that nation within three years at least will move up to second place, unless Congress should see fit to authorize each year additions to the American navy at least double those now provided for by the existing naval programme, which contemplates the construction of but two battleships yearly.

The Navy Department today made public the full list of the vessels to be assembled for the great reviews at New York and Los Angeles, and while the number combined does not equal 135 vessels reviewed by the German Emperor at Kiel last Summer, the 126 American ships with their tremendous displacement of 693,944 tons are really more powerful than the German fleet.

The Atlantic fleet will comprise 102 vessels of all classes with a total displacement of 577,599 tons, and the Pacific fleet 24 vessels of 116,245 tons. The combined fleets will include 22 armored ships, while the German fleet numbered 29. The American battleships will number 25, and the armored cruisers six, while the German fleet included 23 battleships and six armored cruisers.

The following vessels will be mobilized at New York:

Battleships—Connecticut, Florida, Utah, Delaware, North Dakota, Michigan, Louisiana, South Carolina, Kansas, Vermont, New Hampshire, Minnesota, Mississippi, Idaho, Missouri, Ohio, Georgia, Nebraska, New Jersey, Virginia, Maine, Iowa, Indiana, Massachusetts. Total tonnage 366,864.

Armored cruisers—Washington and North Carolina. Tonnage 29,000.

Protected cruisers—Salem and Des Moines. Tonnage 6,950.

Destroyers—Reid, Flusser, Lamson, Preston, Smith, Drayton, Paulding, McCall, Roe, Terry, Perkins, Mayrant, Sterrett, Walke, Warrington, Patterson, Monaghan, Ammon, Burrows, Trippe, McDonough, Worden. Totol tonnage 15,463.

Torpedo boats—Porter, Blakely, Dupont, Barney, Biddle, Craven, Dahlgren, DeLong, Shubrick, Stockton, Tingey, Wilkes, Bagley, Stringham and Morris. Total tonnage 2,934.

Submarines—Grayling, Bonita, Narwhal, Salmon, Snapper, Stingray, Tarpon, Octopus.

Torpedo tenders—Dixie, Castine and Severn. Total tonnage 8,466.

Gunboats—Nashville, Dolphin, Marietta and Petrol. Total tonnage 4,737.

Auxiliaries—Prairie (transport; San Francisco (mine layer), Lebanon (ammunition ship), Panther (repair ship), Mayflower (converted yacht), Yankton (tender), Celtic and Culgoa (supply ships), Solace (hospital ship). Total tonnage 40,733.

Colliers—Neptune, Cyclops, Hector, Mars, Vulcan, Ajax, Brutus and Sterling. Total tonnage 93,938.

Oil tanker—Arethusa. Tonnage 6,159.

Tugs—Patuxenk, Patapsco and Potomac. Total tonnage 2,295.

The composition of the Pacific fleet will be as follows:

Battleship—Oregon, tonnage 10,288.

Armored cruisers—California, South Dakota, Maryland, West Virginia and Colorado. Total tonnage 68,400.

Cruisers—Cincinnati and Raleigh. Total tonnage 6,366.

Destroyers—Whipple, Hopkins, Hull, Truxton, Paul Jones, Preble, Stewart and Lawrence. Total tonnage 3,342.

Torpedo boats—Farragut and Rowan. Tonnage 489.

Submarines—Grampus and Pike.

Tender—Fortune, Tonnage 450.

CASEY MURDER TRIAL

Jury Unable to Agree on Verict Late Last Night

(Special Star Telegram.)

Newbern, N. C., Oct. 13.—At 2:40 o'clock this afternoon the jury in the Casey murder trial was given the case. Tonight at 10 o'clock they had failed to return a verdict and in all probabilities will not do so before morning. Practically all the day's session was taken up with the arguments and the judge's charge to the jury.

At the opening of the session yesterday the State said that in view of the fact tnat a woman had never been convicted of a capital crime and put to death in this State, as far as they knew, that they would only ask for a verdict of murder in the second degree. This will mean that if the prisoners are found guilty that they will only get a long term in the State prison.

LAUNCH CAPSIZED

With Tow—Hundreds of Sailors Were Precipitated Into Bay

San Francisco, Oct. 13.—A launch and its tow of three boats from the cruiser California, flagship of the Pacific fleet, were struck by a ferry boat in the San Francisco Bay tonight while returning from the Oakland Mole after the Oakland reception to President Taft. About 150 officers and sailors were in the small craft and many were thrown into the bay. It is said all but one sailor were rescued.

CHINESE REBELS WILL FIGHT ARMY

Government is Dispatching Thousands of Troops to Suppress Them.

GREAT CHINESE REPUBLIC

It's President Now in New York—Has Raised $200,000 for Cause Celestials of San Francisco Excited Over Movement

Hankow, Oct. 13.—The rebels have been unable to maintain order and business has been completely suspended here and at Han-Yang and Wu-Chang. The working classes are without employment and are attempting to plunder. Fully half a million persons have fled to the countryside.

It is reliably reported that rebels are proceeding northward to meet the imperial troops and that a thousand troops in the province of Hinan, adjoining the disaffected province of Hu-Peh, also are prepared to resist the Imperials.

Confirmation From Shanghai.

London, Oct. 13.—A special dispatch received here from Shanghai says:

"A republic has been proclaimed at Wu Chang. A strong force of rebels has left Hankow with the object of engaging the imperial troops coming from the north and a big battle is expected within two days.

"It is reported that conflagration has broken out in the native city of Hankow and that the government buildings and banks have been destroyed."

Chinese President in New York.

New York, Oct. 13.—News of the presence in this country of Dr. Sun Yat Sen, hailed as the president of a Utopian Chinese Republic, to be born if the present revolution is successful, was announced in New York this afternoon by the publishers of the Chinese Reform News. It was already known, however, in New York's Chinese quarters that the accredited brains in the uprising was still in the United States and Chinatown was inclined to smile at the cable reports saying that Dr. Sen was in China. He has been lecturing in the United Statess for months, and, according to Chinese here, he has sent more than $200,000 to China to further the cause of the revolution, all raised from Chinese in this country.

Most of the Chinese in New York, if the views of the editors of the Reform News may be accepted, are not in sympathy with Dr. Sen and the revolution he is fathering. They hold that reforms are needed, but desire a peaceful, constructive and political remonstrance rather than one of arms.

"While we are in sympathy with anything that means reform in China," said Kwong Loy, interpreter for the publication, "we think Dr. Sriz a demagogue and no Chinese in this country are on accord with his plans. As an agitator he has succeeded in raising a great deal of money, but we believe that the government will be victorious in the end and for this reason we would have preferred a continuance of our peaceful and constructive propaganda."

Nor is Kang Yu Wei, the eminent Chinese scholar and reformer, who has lived for years in exile under the British flag at Penang, Straits Settlement, in sympathy with Dr. Sen and the strife with which China is now torn, according to prominent Chinese here. He also regards the movement as ill-advised, they say. Now that the revolution is started, however, his followers predict that he will support it, although he does not sympathize with its methods.

'Frisco Chinese Excited.

San Francisco, Oct. 13.—Fearing that the present anti-Manchu rising in China may develop into an anti-foreign movement, the Sui Nin Hok Sher, the China association in the United States, is preparing to petition Washington to instruct all American officials in China to see that missionaries and other Americans there maintain absolute neutrality. The petition will be forwarded simultaneously from the young China association and the Gee Kong Tong, the Chinese Free Mason Society, which is affiliated with the revolutionary party. It is said that 90 per cent. of the Chinese in this country are members of the Free Masons.

A donation by Chinese in the United States of $20,000 to aid the revolution was forwarded from this city last night to Hankow.

The rising in China has filled the Chinese quarter with great excitement. All Chinese papers are receiveing bulletins by cable from Hankow and other points.

According to advices received here 20 miles of railroad have been destroyed in the province of Hunan.

At Hankow the foreign residents are drilling daily and preparing to defend the concessions.

Chang Piao, commander in chief of the Imperial forces in Hu-Peh, was wounded yesterday and has taken refuge in the Japanese concession at Hankow.

Gen. Yin Tcheng, minister of war, reached Pao Ting Fu, 100 miles south of Peking, yesterday morning and continued his advance. He could not proceed far, however, owing to the destruction of the railroad tracks and activities of the revolutionists.

Accompanied by his secretary, W. S. Wong, Dr. Sun Yat Sen, who will be president of the Chinese republic if

INVESTIGATION OF SENATORS

Democrats Who Made Something by Staying Away so Stephenson Could be Elected—Probing Lorimer Transaction.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 13.—Intimations were made today at the Senatorial investigation of Senator Isaac Stephenson's election that the committee intended to go thoroughly into the charges of bribery, as related to the absence of certain members of the Wisconsin Legislature on March 4, 1909, when the senator was elected.

The charge was made in a previous legislative inquiry that Senator Stephenson was elected after a five weeks' deadlock and then only after three Democratic Assemblymen had absented themselves, thus giving Stephenson a majority. The intention of the committee to go into the subject was shown when Senator Heyburn, the chairman, quoted State Senator Domachowski as having said he had been told "it would be worth his while" to remain away from the Legislature. C. C. Wellensgard, an assemblyman, was asked whether he had heard Domachowski make that remark in the assembly. Although the witness replied he had not, it was indicated the committee intended to probe the subject further through other witnesses.

The witnesses said they had never heard of Senator Stephenson's money being used for corrupt purposes.

Lorimer Investigation.

Chicago, Oct. 13.—William C. Blair, lawyer, former State representative, and brother of Francis G. Blair, State superintendent of public instruction, was a target today for a fire of cross-examination.

Blair was charged with having exhibited $1,500 in $100 bills at a ball game in Centralia, Ill., shortly after the election of Lorimer, and this charge was followed by this frequently repeated question:

"Where did you get it?"

The witness had not answered this question to the satisfaction of the committee when the hearing was adjourned for the day and he will be recalled to the stand tomorrow.

Meantime the committee ordered by telegraph from the State auditor and State treasurer a complete report of when and how Blair drew the sum of $2,175, his salary, from the State as a member of the Legislature.

With this report in hand, the committee will ask Blair to account for expenditures which it is alleged amounted to more than $2,000 before the legislative session concluded.

Blair said that in addition to his salary as a member of the legislature he received some money in fees from his legal practice. The committee asked for a detailed account of all such receipts, and also telegraphed for the court records of five counties in Southern Illinois, to get a complete record of Blair's appearances in court from January 1, to July 1, 1909.

Senator Kern, of the Senatorial committee, said he wanted a full record of all of Blair's financial transactions, bank accounts and collections from clients for that period.

GLIDDEN TOUR.

All Details Are Completed for Long Journey Southward.

New York, Oct. 13.—All the details of the start tomorrow of the Glidden tour from New York to Jacksonville, were completed this morning and indications were for an auspicious getaway.

The 80 cars in the big caravan will be started from the corner of Fifth avenue and 39th street, at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. Motor cycle policemen will clear the way from the starting point to Jersey City.

Robert P. Hooper, president of the Automobile Association of America, accompanied by Charles J. Glidden, donor of the trophy, and Judge Cann, of Savannah, will lead in the procession.

Tonight the entrants and all others connected with the big run will gather at the Automobile Club of America to receive final instructions.

IS HARD TO SELECT LOS ANGELES JURY

Two Days of Court in McNamara Trial and Little Done.

NOT A SINGLE MAN PASSED

Precedents Are Being Threshed Out By Attorneys—Points of Contest Are Many and Difficult—The Progress

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 13.—After two days of court sessions in the trial of James B. McNamara, for the murder of Charles J. Haggerty, a victim of the Los Angeles Times explosion and fire on October 1st, 1910, no juror had been selected even tentatively tonight and no decision has been reached as to the eligibility of the first talesman examined.

Although court proceedings moved forward without interruption, the magnitude of issues involved in the examination of Z. T. Nelson, the first talesman, made proceedings deliberate.

At sunset, when court adjourned, arguments on the Nelson status remained unfinished.

A provision of the constitution of the State differing somewhat from the constitution of the United States, sections of the penal code regarding the qualifications of jurors, and a contest over the meaning of the record of Nelson's examination combined to furnish points of contest which affect not alone the talesmen under examination but every prospective juror, and for this reason were stubbornly contested.

By chance of one or two cases cited by Attorney Horton showing that the law regarding the eligibility of talesmen was that of Juror Arthur in the trial of Abraham Reuf, now serving a 14-year sentence in San Quentin penitentiary, for bribery in the so-called San Francisco graft cases.

Another case cited was the famous case of "Red Short Gordon," who with a band of fellow convicts, fought his way out of Folsom penitentiary in a sensational break for freedom.

The constitution of California guarantees a fair trial "for all parties in litigation," whereas that of the United States guarantees such rights to the defendant. The penal code of the State, under an act of the Legislature was intended, Horton declared, to enable intelligent men to serve on juries and allows any to do so under usual restrictions who are not of "a state of mind which will prevent acting with entire impartiality and without prejudice to the substantial rights of either party."

On these two propositions, Attorney Horton based his argument, contending first, that the rights of the State must be preserved as scrupulously as those of the defendant and, further that the criminal code must express provision for jury service for a man of Nelson's frame of mind.

Interrupted in a declaration that Nelson had declared he was without bias toward the defense, Attorney Horton remarked that if the record showed otherwise, it was because the talesman had confused the defendant's own case with his expressed opinion that the Times building was blown up with dynamite.

The record as read by Attorney Joseph Scott, of counsel for the defense, quoted Nelson as saying that he had an opinion concerning McNamara's guilt or innocence; that he had held such opinion for about four months, and that it would take strong evidence to dislodge it. Judge Bordwell announced that he would go over the record on this point.

Attorney Clarence Darrow, chief of counsel for the defense, made the argument against accepting Nelson as a juror after his have been challenged on grounds of bias, earlier in the day.

"No section of the criminal code can change a man's constitutional rights," was his opening statement. "A defendant must be tried by a jury not by a ratification meeting. Never before have I seen an officer of the State asking the defense to take a juror who has sworn that he has held an opinion for months as to the defendant's guilt or innocence and that it would take strong evidence to remove that opinion."

He intimated that a ruling adverse to the contention regarding Nelson would be considered ground for appeal and it was upon this point that Horton in his address reassured the court.

"I don't think the court cares to consider the possible action of a court of review," interrupted Judge Bordwell, and all counsel seemed to agree.

McNamara throughout the afternoon sat against the rail, clasping his knees with his hands and looking steadily at his counsel.

There will be a two hour's session of court tomorrow.

BIG TIMBER DEAL

Eight Thousand Acre Tract on Mount Mitchell Purchased

Asheville, N. C., Oct. 12.—An 8,000-acre tract of spruce timber on Mount Mitchell was sold today by S. Montgomery Smith, of this city, and F. A. Drewery and Marcus L. Foster, of Massachusetts, to Campbell & Dickey, of Virginia, for $857,000. A 16-mile railroad will be built and 300 men employed to get the timber out.

GREETINGS FROM THE DUKE

Telegram to Ecumenical Conference From Governor General—Power of the Layman in the Church

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 13.—A telegram of greeting from the Duke of Connaught surprised and gratified the delegates attending today's sessions of the Ecumenical Methodist Conference here. The message was sent shortly after the Duke's arrival at Quebec and just before his installation as Govreonr General of the dominion.

"On landing in Canada," it read, "I wish to send the Ecumenical Methodist Conference warmest greetings and hope you have successful meetings."

The delegates sent a suitable communication of acknowledgment and greeting.

The power of the laymen in the Church and social service and the world-wide helpful results to come from further extension of the so-called "laymen's movement" were subjects considered today.

"Laymen are not merely conveniences to be drained of cash," said Norman T. S. Sargent, of London, England, a Wesleyan Methodist class leader and circuit stewart. "The layman, moreover, has a duty beyond the giving of funds. The expenditure of time and personality is essential."

As viewed by Professor A. G. Atkins, of the African Methodist Episcopal church, "the evolution of Christianity has been since the reformation a shifting center of influence from the priesthood to the people. Every movement has re-discovered the laity in the work of the church and has enlisted men in the work previously done largely by women."

BANQUET SPEILS AT DURHAM

College Professor Repudiates Competition—Recall Condemned

Durham, N. C., Oct. 13.—At a banquet celebrating University Day for the University of North Carolina, closing after midnight this morning, Professor H. H. Williams, of the chair of philosophy, declared, speaking on the subject, Democracy and the Corporations,, thet "competition in business and in government is feudalism; it is waste and weakness. It is against natural law. There is no difference between the edicts of the Synod of Paris and the Council of Rheims, which placed the ban on the study of medicine, and those of the Sherman anti-trust law. The principle is the same. Both are against the law of life and both are attempts to control natural development by statute. Churches have made mistakes but we do not abolish churches. Corporations have committed grievous errors, but the remedy is not dissolution."

Retiring Judge J. C. Biggs, professor of law at Trinity College, former Democratic leader, made a speech calling upon all University men in the State to stand against the drastic and revolutionary recall measure so widely advocated in the West.

WOMEN CARD SHARKS

Marked Pasteboards Enabled Them to Win at Church Parties

New York, Oct. 13.—Six women "card sharks" who are believed to have had a long and successful career as prize winners at big euchre and other card parties given under the auspices of church societies here, have been caught operating in Brooklyn by three priests. Those familiar with the facts declare the women have engaged in their work as professional gamblers for two years and have carried away with them prizes in cash and other articles valued at several thousand dollars.

They might have gone on with their scheme indefinitely but for the fact that a priest overheard a conversation on a street car between two of the women several days ago and laid a trap for them when they tried to begin operations at a fair in the Forty-seventh Regiment armory in Brooklyn.

In the street car conversation overheard by the priest one of the women told how she had marked the cards at a church euchre and thus won the first prize which was a set of silver valued at $50.

GREAT-GRANDSON OF DAVIS.

Son of Winnie Hayes Davis a Happy Father.

Denver, Oct. 12.—The first great-grandson of the President of the Southern Confederacy, Jefferson Davis, was born here today and was named Jefferson Davis. He is the first born of Jefferson Hayes Davis, son of Winnie Hayes Davis, daughter of President Jefferson Davis.

Miss Davis married J. A. Hayes, a banker of Colorado Springs. Upon her death about a year ago the son secured passage of a legislative act allowing him to change his name from Jefferson Davis Hayes to Jefferson Hayes Davis. He married Miss Dora DeWitt, daughter of a leading physician of the Springs.

"SUNNY JIM" LATE

Didn't Get His Ticket For Championship Ball Games

Philadelphia, Oct. 13.—One of the hundreds of eleventh hour applications for seat reservations received at Shibe Park yesterday was from Vice President Sherman. It was not received until long after the seats had been sold for the third game of the series and unless Mr. Sherman finds a friend with a ticket to spare, the second official of the United States will have to join the bulletin board gazers.

CHAMPION GAMES BEGIN IN GOTHAM

Interest is Tense Over Contest Between Big League Teams.

SIXTY THOUSAND CAN SEE IT

Trains Carrying Thousands of Fans to Metropolis—Crowds Sleeping and Eating at Gates—Counterfeit Tickets on Sale

New York, Oct. 13.—With the stage set and the curtain about to be raised on the final act of aseason of memorable baseball, the night before news of the series for the world's baseball championship between the Philadelphia Athletics and the New York Giants may be epitomized as follows:

Both teams are in New York ready for the first game.

All the forty-four eligible players are reported to be in fine fettle, with one exception, First Baseman McInnes, of Philadelphia, whose injured wrist may keep him out of the game.

Pitchers were not chosen tonight, or if they were, neither manager would divulge his choice.

Tickets to the series, though still to be had, are mainly in the hands of speculators who are charging exorbitant prices. The disclosure that speculators had obtained great blocks of tickets precipitated a tremendous row among the fans.

Vague charges were made of mail robbery in connection with the ticket scandal.

There is room at the Polo Grounds for nearly sixty thousand people.

So determined were some that they formed in line at the grounds late this afternoon, intending to eat and sleep at the gate until admitted tomorrow.

Two hunderd strong armed policemen, fifty mounted officers and a large number of detectives have been assigned as a special force to handle the big crowd.

The gates will open at eight o'clock in the morning and the police and hundreds of ground employes have been ordered to be on hand half an hour earlier.

The police look for trouble as they have been ordered to arrest ticket scalpers. It was rumored tonight that hundreds of counterfeit tickets were in circulation.

Betting continued practically an even thing. Many Philadelphia supporters gave odds of 10 to 9.

The probable line-up is as follows:

New York	Philadelphia
Devore, lf	Lord, lf
Doyle, 2b	Oldring, cf
Snodgrass, cf	Collins, 2b
Murray, rf	Baker, 3b
Merkle, 1b	Murphy, rf
Herzog, 3b	McInnis or Davis, 1b
Fletcher, ss	Barry, ss
Meyers, c	Thomas, c
Marquard or Mathewson, pitchers;	Bender of Coombs, pitchers.

Umpires—Choice of two from Klem and Brennan of the National League, and Connolly and Dineen of the American League.

The twenty-two Philadelphia players picked as eligibles arrived in New York tonight. The party was headed by Manager Connie Mack, accompanied by the wives of a majority of the players and a few Philadelphia enthusiastics.

All the men look in the pink of condition and in but one exception did looks belie the truth. The exception was "Stuffy" McInnis, the Athletic's star first sacker. Will McInnes play? This question was the one thing which arose for discussion as a small party of New York friends met the Philadelphia players when they stepped off their train at the Pennsylvania station shortly after 6 o'clock.

"Big Chief Bender answered: "Stuffy won't play; he can't with such a wrist as he's got."

Krauz and a number of his team mates said the same. McInnis himself, did not know, but plainly showed some worry over his wrist which hasn't responded satisfactorily to the treatment since it was injured three weeks ago.

Connie Mack was seen in a smiling mood after dinner with his men.

"Will McInnis play?" Mack was asked.

"I can't say tonight, but it is doubtful."

In quarters close to the management it was stated tonight that Harry Davis ,the veteran first baseman would take his old position if McInnis was unable to play.

"Who will pitch?" the problem was as hard to solve tonight as the picking of tomorrow's winner. "There will be no night before announcement," insisted Connie Mack.

The Athletics came over from Philadelphia tonight in order to avoid the rush of the fans which is expected to tax the capacity of trains tomorrow.

"We will go into tomorrow's game as we have gone into games all through our league season," said one of the Philadelphia players, "simply resolved to play our best and win if we can."

In the Giants' camp there was the same reticence as to which pitcher would be chosen. It depends on a number of things, especially the weather. Many of the fans guess that if it is a cloudy day, young Marquard, the hero of the season's play, will be put in the box, as his speed would

SPORTING NEWS

DETAILS OF CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES WILL BE RECEIVED OVER PRIVATE WIRE.

The Star will receive the world's championship games, play by play, over private leased wire direct from the baseball grounds in New York and Philadelpnia. The private wire will open promptly at 2 o'clock with an expert Associated Press operator at both ends of the line, and everyone interested is cordially invited to either 'phone No. 51 or call at business office for the score and details as the game progresses.

The baseball matinee at the Crystal Palace, beginning at 1 o'clock, will give a continuous report by megaphone and everyone is urged to support the matinee, but those who are unavoidably kept away can get the score at any time from The Star office.

BASEBAL MATINEE

Biggest Game Ever Played Will Be Received in Detail

The weather up New York way being favorable, today will witness the inauguration of the greatest series of battles for world world supremacy of the diamond that have ever been played, and for the inaugural event, four of the greatest men in the history of modern baseball will be put out by their respective teams to do the heavy work at the sending and receiving ends. Mathewson and Meyers will defend the title for McGraw's Giants and Bender and Thomas will be on hand to endeavor to take the persimmon again for the Mackmen. This will undoubtedly be the biggest baseball game ever played and will attract no less than 50,000 people to the New York Polo Grounds. The first real continuous report of a baseball game ever received in Wilmington will be pulled off at the Crystal Palace this afternoon in honor of the big occasion, and will be something entirely new and different from detailed reports that have been received here in the past. The wire will open at 1 o'clock and before the game starts will give all the preliminary dope that will be so interesting at this time. The game is called for 2 o'clock and from that minute till the last inning is over the report will come in and be announced by megaphone continuously. The admission is only 25 cents and satisfaction is guaranteed everyone.

FOR STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

Cincinnati Nationals Win From Cleveland American League Team

Cleveland, Onio, Oct. 13.—Cincinnati won the second game of the State championship series with Cleveland today, the victory being the second scored by the National Leaguers, with the American Leaguers having none to their credit. Benton held Cleveland safe all the way, while Kaler, as long as he was in the box, pitched good ball. In the seventh inning, however, Manager Stovall, of Cleveland, put himself in to bat for Kaler, and when Cincinnati came to bat in the eighth they found W. Mitchell facing them. They immediately fell on the left hander for five hits, which, with a hit batsman, two passes and two errors, netted eight runs and the game.

Outfielder Jackson, of Cleveland, had a bad day, making two wild throws that netted Cincinnati several runs. The fielding feature was a throw from deep center by Mike Mitchell in the second inning on Turner's fly, which doubled Birmingham at the plate. There will be a doubleheader tomorrow.

CITY CHAMPIONSHIP

Chicago's Big League Teams Played Fine Game Yesterday

Chicago, Oct. 13.—Scoring three runs in a brilliant ninth inning rally, the Chicago American League club defeated the Chicago Nationals in the initial game of the city championship series today 4 to 3.

The Americans outhit the Nationals more than two to one, getting twelve hits off Brown, while Walsh held his opponents to five. Four of the American's hits came in the ninth inning.

Tomorrow the teams are scheduled to play the second game of the series at the National League park.

ANNUAL SURVEY OF MISSIONS.

Foreign Secretary of Board Before American Commissioners.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 11.—"The Annual Survey of the Missions" was presented at today's session of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, which is holding its annual meeting here, by Rev. James L. Barton, D. D., of Boston, the foreign secretary of the board.

After referring to the eight honored missionaries of the board who have died during the past year, Secretary Barton began his survey of the field with a review of the outstanding political events of the year; the revolution in Mexico; the difficulties of the new regime in administering the Turkish government; China's rapid step forward towards representative government and the change to Republican government in Portuguese West Africa. All these changes, he affirmed, have made conditions for missionary work brighter. A larger religious liberty is looked for in Mexico with more emphasis put upon education. Liberty of the press, freedom of travel, and freedom of speech have been continued in Turkey though under some perhaps necessary limitations. The rapid suppression of the opium trade and the advance of other reforms in China augur well for better conditions in that Empire. And if the statement of Portuguese officials can be relied upon, missionary work in Portuguese Africa will receive more liberal consideration in the future, than in the past. The relations between the natives and the government in Natal have also been greatly improved under the new government there.

Readjustments in mission fields and in other management become necessary from time to time, as in the case of all living and growing bodies. Dr. Patton's visit to several of the mission fields this year and the sending of a commission to Turkey next year for a conference of all Turkish missions to review their interests together and to decide upon new plans and policies are an indication that the board is endeavoring to keep its work well in hand, and adapted to new conditions as they arrive. In the interest of missionary comity and efficiency certain transfers of missions have been made or are contemplated. The mission at Guam has been passed over to the General Baptist Foreign Missionary Society of Indiana; negotiations are in progress with the Methodist Episcopal Church, North, with reference to passing over the American Board's work in Spain to them, as that body is especially well equipped for work in European countries. Certain changes in the Micronecian Islands and in some parts of Turkish missions looking toward better co-operation with other missionary societies are still under consideration.

As one looks over the fields to note the more conspicuous events of the year, attention is called to the decision to transfer the Pangschwang station to Techou in north China, only eight miles away, but on the railroad and Grand Canal, a wide awake and important location which offers a better center for missionary work. In West Africa, plans are maturing for the organization of a training school for young men to provide preachers and teachers for the work of evangelization in that country. In the Madura Mission the new plan of giving into the hands of the native churches, a large responsibility and control in general work of the mission while still in its infancy, promises a real advance. At Vana and Mardin, in eastern Turkey, the call is becoming very urgent for enlarged educational work. The station at Van is called upon to supply educated leaders for not only Eastern Turkey, but Southern Russia and Western Persia, and feels the ned of a school of college grade. Similarly Mardin, which touches Arabi peoples to the south, feels the need of an institution of grade that will enable it to train native preachers and teachers. In stormy Albania, where the sky seems now brightening a little, the board has decided to make Elbasan its center of work. It plans to build a house on land already purchased, to be followed in time by hospital and school.

After reviewing the situation of the work in several fields of the board, pointing out its magnificent opportunities and the desperate need of advance to improve them; situations of which Rhodesia in Africa, Shansi, in China, and the central mission in Turkey, are conspicuous examples, but whose urgency is hardly less than that of most of the 20 missions, Secretary Barton answered the question, shall they go forward? by saying: "Under these circumstances, to tell them that they cannot advance because neither can adequate re-enforcements be found nor can appropriations be made to meet the increased expense involved, is to make them feel almost abandoned just as they are about to gather the harvest for which they have toiled so long."

It is interesting and encouraging to note that in spite of the financial straits of recent years with the consequent repression, some real enlargement has been made, although almost all of it has come through special funds from outside sources. In all $700,000 has been spent or is about to be spent on new plants, buildings, etc., in the various fields.

As the work of mission centers in the task of evangelism, it is good to report that there has been a real progress during the year in the developments of churches and in the more aggressive spirit of evangelism in many lands. A successful Armenian merchant in New York maintained an experienced and tried native evangelist in Central Turkey. The Central Turkey mission is putting evangelists of its own number into the field. In Japan, the Kumi-ai churches are beginning to organize a systematic and aggressive campaign to evangelize the masses outside the chief cities. In some parts of China, notably at Fenchow, in Shansi, there seems to be an almost phenomenal trend towards Christianity. India also presents some striking signs of mass movements toward Christianity. The East African mission plans to set apart one of its men as director of the evangelizing forces in outside fields. The great and hardly touched Sabi Valley district beyond them is continually appealing for the light. In Austria the spirit of evangelism pervades the churches.

Secretary Barton then reviewed the educational advance of the year. The sum of $1,000,000 has been received for the Higher Educational Endowment Fund, whose goal is set at $2,000,000. The first institutions to receive its aid are those training young men for the ministry. The influence and power of education is deepening constantly throughout the East, especially in the training of girls. Industrial education is not being over pressed, but in some countries, like Africa, is of large importance.

The statistics of the year, while not a sufficient index of growth, show advance in many ways. The missionary body remains about the same in number. The native laborers show an increase of more than 140. Churches and schools have made gains. The figures of medical work cover 27 hospitals and 37 dispensaries, and show record service to over 35,000 patients last year, and total treatments in hospitals and dispensaries being 244,000. Native contributions amount to the substantial sum of $295,360. When the value of a dollar in many of these places is considered, this gain is most significant.

UNIQUE GIFT FOR EDISON

Inventor Will Receive Copper Cube At Electrical Exposition

Thomas A. Edison will attend a luncheon at the opening of the Electrical Exposition of 1911, in the New Grand Central Palace, today, to receive a solid cubic foot of copper as a gift from the representatives of the copper industry of the United States. This block of copper, the first of such dimensions ever cast and mounted upon an ebony pedestal, is the result of a humorous remark of Edison's last Spring. He said that since his inventions had done so much for the copper trade, he thought the copper magnates should present him with a good big lump of it. Six castings weer made before a perfect specimen was obtained.—New York American.

POINTERS FOR THE MOTORIST.

Steel-Studded, Anti-Skid Tires Should be Repaired at Once.

Many motorists make the mistake of running on their anti-skid tires after the steel studs have been worn down. It is done upon the assumption that tire economy is thus effected. This is a mistake, says the Michelin Tire man—and a costly one.

No matter how hard the steel of which the studs are made, constant use will eventually cause them to wear down. This is proven by the fact that the best cutlery steel cannot resist the friction of a grindstone.

In districts where the roads are uniformly good, the studs are very long-lasting, and even on rough roads they will stand a great deal of work. But in time, constant usage wears them down.

Even though the envelope may still be in good condition, the leather covering should never be made to serve as a tread. Its purpose is simply to afford greater protection against possible punctures, and to give extra support to the steel studs. Invariably the total destruction of the tire quickly follows when the leather tread is pressed into this service for which it was never intended. The envelope is of no further use after the leather has gone.

If the canvas is not too much worn, the envelope can be restudded and fitted with new leather or it can be fitted with a plain tread, and utilized for one of the front wheels.

Another very important thing that motorists should remember is the fact that the efficiency of a steel studded anti-skid tire depends almost entirely upon the air pressure maintained in it. The leather band in which the steel studs are imbedded is a great deal less elastic than rubber, and as a result, a certain amount of stress is created betwen the two materials.

Numerous other valuable hints on the proper care of tires are given in the "Book of Bibendum" issued free on request to motorists by the Michelin Tire Co., of Milltown, New Jersey.

TOUR INTO CAROLINA.

President Tufts, of Highway Associations Arranging Itinerary.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

New York, Oct. 13.—Leonard Tufts, president of the Capital Highway Association, was in New York last week in conference with the officers of the Touring Club and completed arrangements for the starting of a tour from Atlanta, Ga., on the morning of November 13th. A large number of good roads enthusiasts have signified their intention to participate in this tour and motorists from Savannah will join the part at Augusta. The tentative schedule calls for visiting Augusta and Aiken on the 14th, Columbia and Camden on the 15th, Jackson Springs, Pinehurst and Southern Pines on the 16th, Raleigh and Durham on the 17th, Littleton (N. C.) and vicinity on the 18th, arriving at Richmond on that night.

President Tufts is one of the leading good roads advocates in the South and clearly indicated during a recent conference in New York that nothing would be left undone to make the tour along the route of the Capital Highway a great success.

It is planned to run a good roads scout car under the direction of the Touring Club of America from Atlanta, Ga., to Richmond, Va., in the near future, securing the latest available data, sign-posting the roads and arranging for accommodations for those on the tour in November. This scouting party will include a representative of the United States office of Public Roads, President Tufts, of the Capital Highway Association, Frederick H. Elliott, secretary of the Touring Club of America, and Col. Henry McNair, editor of the Official Automobile Blue Book.

It is believed that this tour, passing through as it does, some of the most progressive cities in the South, will do much to interest the highway officials in the different counties and townships in improving their roads for the caravan of automobiles which will follow this route on the way to Richmond in November.

DAY'S DOINGS IN RALEIGH

An Election in October—Opening of New Auditorium—Coming of Governor Harmon—University Day.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 13.—Raleigh is to hold an election October 31st, on the triple question of the sale of the present city market house and apply the proceeds to the sinking fund of the municipal bonded indebtedness; sell it and provide a new modern market on the block in the rear of the present market, or to remodel the present building. There is in progress an entirely new registration for this election.

There is much gratification that the Raleigh aldermen have at last well under way the preliminary movement for the widening of Hillsboro street in the vicinity of St. Mary's College, a work that will be accomplished within the next few weeks and will add wonderfully to the beauty as well as the safety of that locality.

For the events in the splendid new auditorium during State Fair week there will be charges for admission, except for the dedicatory ceremony on Tuesday night. This will be free to all. For the concert Wednesday night the admission will be 25 cents to $1; for the band concert Thursday night 25 cents to 75 cents, and for the marshal's ball Friday night 25 cents to $1, the latter being for the ball room floor where only evening dress will be allowed.

For the great concert there will be noted singers from various parts of the State. The participants will be the Raleigh Choral Society with Wade R. Brown as director; St. Mary's Orchestra with R. Blinn Owen as conductor; Mrs. Gilmore Ward Bryan, Durham; Miss Leonomie Dumais, Peace Institute; Mrs. Janie Foushee, Greensboro; Miss Josephine Gilmer, Waynesville, sopranos; Mrs. H. J. Arnetter Rocky Mount, contralto; Mrs. Blanche L. Crafts, St. Mary's School; Mr. Gustav Hagedorn, violinists, and Mr. James P. Brawley, pianist. It will be one of Raleigh's greatest musical events and one in which the whole State will be represented.

It develops that there is a possibility that Governor Judson Harmon, of Ohio, may be here on Tuesday night for the dedicatory exercises for the new auditorium. He is coming for an address at the State Fair on Wednesday and has written that he hopes to make an earlier train so as to reach Raleigh Tuesday evening instead of Wednesday morning. Gen. J. S. Carr and his committee on reception and entertainment of Governor Harmon, are perfecting their arrangements quite satisfactorily.

There were 63 alumni of the University of North Carolina last night for the annual banquet in celebration of the 116th anniversary of the founding of the institution, the crowning glory of North Carolina's educational equipment.

WHITEVILLE AFFAIRS

Mr. Powell Improving—Dr. Steele on Deer Drive—Drainage Project

Whiteville, Oct. 13.—Mr. A. H. Powell, one of the leading business men of Vineland, who has been seriously sick, is better, and his many friends wish for him a speedy recovery.

Last night was quite cool again and farmers are apprehensive of frost. Every available hand is busy picking cotton, and our schools are slimly attended owing to the fact that the children must remain at home to gather the staple.

Columbus county farmers have decided to cut the cotton acreage in half next year, owing to the low price, and will plant largely of tobacco. They say even at 10 cents for the staple they cannot come out even, owing to the high price of mules, labor and farm supplies of all kinds.

Rev. Dr. Steele, of the Lumberton Presbyterian church, has returned home after spending two days fishing and deer hunting at Wananish, with his 13-year-old boy friend, Kinchen Council. Two four-prong bucks running tandem raced by the Doctor, but at such speed and distance that the Doctor's shells were wasted on the desert air. But Kinchen was awaiting in their path and knocked them down and out. They were both large and very fat deer.

C. W. Mengegel, assistant drainage engineer of South Carolina, has just finished a tour of inspection of the Gapway swamp, in Marion county, S. C., near Fair Bluff, from the Lumber river, near Nichols, to the Big Bay, near Clarendon, in Columbus county, the head of the Gapway swamp. That water shed of six miles will include about 35,000 acres of fine land, that is now practically without any drainage. This is another important drainage scheme for our section.

WAREHOUSE FOR CLINTON.

Three Bankers and Business Men Will Build at Once.

(Sampson Democrat, Oct. 12.)

In response to the demand for facilities for storing cotton and securing loans on it pending the decline in price of this crop, Messrs. L. A. Bethune, D. M. Partrick and G. A. Clute have undertaken the building of a warehouse in Clinton. They hope to have it ready for the receipt of cotton by the middle of November. The material has been bought and the contract let to Mr. D. E. Clifton, who will rush the work to completion. The matter of the warehouse was brought up before the meeting of the Farmers' Union here Friday and received the approval and endorsement of that body.

The question of holding cotton is always one of uncertain results and often has the effect of delay on the payment of obligations for the settlement of which there is pressing need. But where farmers or other owners of cotton feel that the price is lower than it should be as the result of heavy sales or speculative pressure, as sems to be the case now, it is helpful to have the use of a warehouse upon whose certificates money can be borrowed to meet such obligations as may be pressing. In this way it is possible to prevent flooding the market at the debt paying season and forcing down prices. Notice will be given when the Clinton Warehouse is ready to receive cotton on storage.

THE LUMBER INDUSTRY.

Nearly Half of Country's Output is From the Pine.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Washington, D. C., Oct. 7.—About 48 per cent. of the total lumber output of the United States in 1908 was pine, showing how important to the lumber industry of the country the 37 species of pine grown in the United States are.

No one species grows in all the States, yet, with perhaps one exception, no State is without one or more. Some occupy large regions in considerable abundance, while others are so scarce that few persons ever see and recognize them. Yet no species of pine is so scarce that it is not made in some way to serve man's need.

Four important timber trees of the Southeastern United States are usually grouped as one in the lumber markets, and are sold under tthe common name of yellow pine. Taey are tne long-leaf pine, short-leaf pine, loblolly pine and Cuban pine. While in appearance the woods of thees four trees are so nearly alike that it is sometimes difficult to distinguish one from the other, still, in some particulars, there is considerable difference.

Although the long-leaf pine, white pine, western yellow pine, western white pine, and the loblolly produce most of the pine lumber manufactured in the United States, the U. S. Department of Agriculture in Forest Service Bulletin No. 99, considers each species separately, giving in detail its physical properties, the supply, its early uses, manufacture and products; and in the case of the more important species, specifies the more important uses to which it is put. The places which some species occupy are very humble, and they can never rise much in the scale of usefulness, yet each one is entitled to its own individuality.

DUNN NEWS NOTES.

Personal and General Notes—Graded School Matters.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Dunn, N. C., Oct. 12.—Rev. W. F. Massey, editor of the Christian Advocate, preached at Duke Sunday morning and here that night. This was his first time with our people and his sermon was enjoyed very much by all who were fortunate enough to hear him.

Mrs. C. H. Barnes, of Jacksonville, Fla., is spending several days with the family of Mr. J. D. Barnes, brother of her husband. Mrs. Barnes is on her way back to Jacksonville from Plainfield, N. J., where her daughter, Miss Helen, is attending school.

The members of the National Union enjoyed a barbecue given by Manager O. P. Shell, at Pope's pond last Friday. This order has grown very rapidly since its organization, under the management of Mr. O. P. Shell, who is State manager.

Since the opening of the graded school the attendance has increased so rapidly that it is impossible for the present corps of teachers to handle the classes. Prof. Gentry went before the commission last Friday night and asked for an additional teacher; his request was granted and he is now trying to get a teacher for high grade work.

The ladies of Dunn met at the school building Friday afternoon and organized a Graded School Betterment Association for the purpose of beautifying the school grounds and getting more in touch with the teachers. Quite a large number were present and the following officers were elected: Mr. P. S. Cooper, president; Mrs. T. V. Smith, vice president; Miss Pauline Wade, secretary. The members will meet again next Friday to make plans and perfect the organization.

SUFFRAGETTES JUBILANT.

News From California Joyously Received in New York.

New York, Oct. 13.—The National headquarters of the Woman's Suffrage organizations are in gala dress today over the news of the victory in California.

"We are gloriously happy," declared Dr. Anna Shaw, National president of the suffrage party. "This is the beginning of the end. The victory in California gives to the cause as many voters as in the five other States where we have previously won.

"Kansas, Oregon, Wisconsin and other Western States are bound to follow the lead at the next elections. The politicians are also come to realize that the women are winning their long fight and will climb into the band wagon.

"The woman suffrage party is soon to be a great power in the Presidential campaign, in fact, has become so now that California is won. President Taft this week made his first speech about woman suffrage and spoke in favor of it."

Mrs. Pankhurst, the English suffrage leader, declared: "The news is gratifying. English women will be particularly glad because it will be a great help in our campaign."

HIDDEN DANGERS

Nature Gives Timely Warnings That No Wilmington Citizen Can Afford to Ignore

DANGER SIGNAL No. 1 comes from the kidney secretions. They will warn you when the kidneys are sick. Well kidneys excrete a clear, amber fluid. Sick kidneys send out a thin, pale and foamy, or a thick, red, ill-smelling urine, full of sediment and irregular of passage.

DANGER SIGNAL No. 2 comes from the back. Back pains, dull and heavy, or sharp and acute, tell you of sick kidneys and warn you of the approach of dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills act on sick kidneys. Here's Wilmington proof:

S. C. Winner, 215 E. Market street, Wilmington, N. C., says: 'I still believe Doan's Kidney Pills to be an excellent kidney medicine and I cheerfully confirm the testimonial I gave in their favor in February, 1908. This remedy has been used in my family, being procured at Bellamy's Drug Store and it has given relief from Lackache and other symptoms of kidney complaint."

W. O. SAUNDERS FINED.

Elizabeth City Editor Convicted in United States Court.

Elizabeth City, N. C., Oct. 12.—Attorneys for W. O. Saunders, in the case of United States vs. W. O. Saunders for using the mail for the dissemination of indecent literature, accepted a verdict of guilty and Judge Connor fined him $100 and costs in the case.

Mr. Saunders is the publisher of a newspaper in this city and the literature that caused this indictment was printed in his paper.

Judge Connor lectured Mr. Saunders upon the seriousness of his offense and told him that he should not be encouraged to commit the offense again on account of the small fine, for should he appear in the court again a severer punishment would be inflicted to maintain the integrity of the law. Judge Connor severely condemned the article in question and that kind of literature and said that he hoped that the people of this section would not endure a repetition of this offense against decency.

CENTRAL CAROLINA FAIR.

Closed Yesterday Afternoon After a Most Successful Week.

Greensboro, N. C., Oct. 13—The Central Carolina fair closed this afternoon after the most successful meet. The fine weather yesterday brought out one of the largest crowds ever seen here on an occasion of the kind and everybody had a good time apparently. There were no serious incidents or mishaps to mar the occasion. The work of Mr. Thornwell Andrews, a Greensboro man, with his Curtiss biplane, was entirely successful. The association comes off with enough more than expenses, to pay a dividend or carry the amount to the surplus. Yesterday the streets were crowded and the conditions continued until far into the night. The fire works last night drew a large crowd to the fair grounds.

New York, Oct. 7.—Thomas A. Edison returned to New York today on the steamer Amerika after a two-months tour in Europe. The inventor's wife, son Theodore, and daughter Madeline, were in the party. They toured Germany, France and Switzerland by automobile.

And it demonstrates the fact that the public are quick to appreciate a departure from "OLD-TIME" high prices on certain classes of goods.

It has always been customary to charge Big Profits on all millinery goods, for the reason that it is chiefly sold during certain periods during the year. But our trade is so large and our stock so great that we have put all millinery articles on an equal footing as to price with all other goods in our big store, and the result is that we have doubled the sales of any previous season.

Thanking our friends and patrons for their liberal patronage, we shall endeavor to still continue to merit same by giving the best values for the least money.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily except Monday, at $6 per year, $3 for six months, $1.50 for three months, 50 cents for one month, served by carriers in the city, or by mail.

THE SUNDAY STAR, by mail, one year, $1; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application, and advertisers may feel assured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Wilmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina.

Obituary sketches, cards of thanks, communications espousing the cause of a private enterprise or a political candidate, and like matter, will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line, or if paid cash in advance a half rate will be allowed. Announcements of fairs, festivals, balls, hops, picnics, society meetings, political meetings, etc., will be charged under same conditions, except so much thereof as may be of news value to readers of the paper.

Advertisements discontinued before expiration of contracts are charged transient rates for time actually published. Payment for transient advertisements must be cash in advance. Contract advertisers will not be allowed to exceed their space at same rates, or advertise anything foreign to their regular business without extra charge. Advertisements to occupy special place will be charged for according to position desired.

TELEPHONES: Business Office, No. 51; Editorial and Local rooms, No. 61. Call either, if the other doesn't answer.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest, are not wanted; and if acceptable in every other way, they will invariably be rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

A scientist inquires: "What is the essential thing in life? Right living and good living.

It is different if one should ask for bread and be given a genuine stone from the diamond mines.

As fast as a trust combination is busted a get-rich contraption comes along to get the balance of our money.

The very "Progressive" sentiment shown by the election in California, is a mighty bad sign for the nomination of an anti-Progressive for President.

Turkey does not seem to be able to fight the Italians in Tripoli, but it seems that she's able to gobble up all the Italians lying around loose in the Ottoman country.

A lot of Wilmington men lit out this week for New York on "business trips." It is strange how many men have business connected with the series of games for the baseball championship of the world.

Senator John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi, says Woodrow Wilson is the most available Democratic candidate for President. By the time the National Democratic convention meets at Baltimore it will be unanimous.

Women are more artistic than men. That is the reason they have an eye for the beautiful and paint in order to be beautiful just as long as they can. The only art displayed by the average man is in his disposition to paint the town red.

Nearly every politician elected during the past 40 years has appeared before the people as a reformer, but in spite of all the Legislatures and Congresses the need for reform is greater than it was when "reform" was sprung as a watchword for getting elected.

We can't say a word about the way Italy is helping herself to a piece of Turkey. If we don't defend Italy's course, it will place us in the position of putting all the blame on Col. Roosevelt for encouraging all the Panamaians to "stand as one man" while Uncle Sam was cinching land for canal purposes.

When prices get out of all proportion to the paying ability of the people, it curtails consumption. That is the very reason we don't all wear diamonds and do not have to waste time keeping up with the market quotations for radium. Steak first went up when the cow jumped over the moon, and it seems like it is going so high that it is likely to bring about a curtailment of consumption.

Mr. John Arbuckle, the New York sugar refiner, says the Payne-Aldrich tariff law exacts $150,000,000 a year from consumers for the benefit of the beet and cane sugar industry. That is a tax of $1.66 2-3 on every man, woman and child in the United States, or a $10 tax on every family of six persons. How many different kinds of taxes like that would it take to make people poor by paying out what they earn for the benefit of the favored interests?

Says President Taft: "I want the people to know where I stand." In the meantime the people were fully aware that he stands pat, so his explanations are simply extraneous or supererogatory, or words to that effect. All the worry among the people is because they do know where the President stands. He persists in standing with special interests and that is the reason his chances for the re-nomination are not very good and his chances for re-election are a great deal worse.

THE PROGRESSIVE COAST LINE.

The Atlantic Coast Line is not only interested in developing the magnificent agricultural resources of eastern North Carolina and in bringing homeseekers here to aid in developing the country, but has adopted a progressive policy that embraces the biggest strokes for development on the broadest lines. That is manifest in the announcement that the Coast Line will run a good roads train throughout the many miles of its system in North Carolina and other States. The Star has already published the particulars about the running of this train, and we are exceedingly gratified that the enterprise of the railroad people has met with enthusiastic appreciation everywhere.

The interest in better highways is already widespread and that wholesome interest will be more tremendously aroused by the practical demonstration which the good roads train will give to the people of the various counties along its lines. There is no telling what that train will be worth to North Carolina and ultimately to the Coast Line, but for the present the expense on the part of the railroad will be a large outlay in cash and progressiveness that must depend on the future for returns. While the benefit to the Coast Line necessarily will be remote, we predict that its enterprise will be fully justified by the great stimulation which it will give to the construction of modern highways. The people and the newspapers all over the country appreciate the progressiveness being displayed by the Coast Line, and in speaking of it the Wilson Times has this to say:

"The object of this train is to stimulate highway improvements, and give practical instructions in the building and maintenance of improved roads, with a view of reducing the cost of farmers in the moving of their crops to the railways. The Southern has been doing excellent work through the medium of its good roads trains, for several years. We are glad that the Atlantic Coast Line is to inaugurate the same work on its lines. The coast country is greatly in need of road development. We are behind the piedmont and mountain sections in this regard. But it will not take us long to catch up, once we get the proper move on. Our roads can be made good and kept good for less money than our brethren to the west have to spend; and so we can do much more work than they are for the same outlay, as a rule. With the Coast Line and the Norfolk Southern joining our people in a viril campaign for improvement, the prospect is indeed bright."

The Coast Line's good roads train will leave Richmond November 23rd, and the Star can state on good authority that it will be one of the best equipped educational enterprises of the kind. It is worth while to repeat that it will be composed of two coaches and a private car, and it will be operated all over the Coast Line's extensive territory embraced in Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Florida. The train will make from one to two stops in every county through which it runs, thus affording to thousands of people the opportunity of having the good roads question demonstrated to them in a way that will beat all the arguments on the question. Of course, no argument should be necessary, and no practical demonstration should be required, to emphasize the tremendous importance and advantage of modern highways for rural, agricultural and social development, but since the movement can be accelerated by arguments, lectures and demonstrations so the good work can be hurried onward, it is a splendid effort in behalf of progress and will meet the heartiest approbation everywhere.

Accompanying the train will be two government road engineers, a representative of the American Association for Highway Improvement, and the Coast Line's own representative. A private car will accompany the train for their accommodation, and in the other coaches will be the equipment for the demonstration. The demonstration will embrace free lectures and stereopticon views at each station, and in one of the coaches will be carried electrically operated models of road building machinery, and plans and forms for the various kinds of modern roads. Such a practical way of demonstrating this big question will be appreciated by all progressive men, and thousands will meet the trains and be made enthusiastic for highway improvement—the one great factor in developing the resources of the country on a more rapid and broader scale than by any other means.

BUMPER COTTON CROP

The impression seems to be gaining ground that while a good cotton crop will be produced, it will not be such a tremendous one as the United States Agricultural Department has led the cotton bears into believing. Reports from Texas and other States do not indicate anything like a 14,000,000 bale crop as has been predicted, and on account of which our cotton growers are now getting less than 10 cents for their cotton. Speaking about the disaster which has come to the growers, the Charleston News and Courier says:

"In some parts of the adjacent country all of the cotton has been picked and most of it ginned. So far as this section is concerned, the heavy ginning instead of showing a bumper crop means an extremely small crop. While the storm emphasized this condition, the fact itself was evident to experienced planters even before the storm. The crop was one of unusually early maturity. It opened all at once. Even among the speculators we notice a tendency to discredit reports of an enormous crop. They are beginning to be suspicious. They have cause to be, but in the meantime the South has been selling freely. Much of the crop has already passed out of the hands of the producers. There is still time, however, for something to be saved from the wreck. The South can still hold to a part of its profits. But there will be no improvement in the market so long as the willingness of farmers to sell below ten cents is emphasized by large offerings daily. A willing victim is always a closely plucked victim. The holding movement should gather force from now on."

While some contend that the crop is only an average one, the Houston Chronicle says the probability is that the crop in Texas will be about 4,000,000 bales. It must be remembered, however, that Texas is about as large as six or seven of the other cotton States and that she generally produces about a third of the crop. Considering the fact that we have had two short crops in succession, even a 13,000,000 bales crop will not justify the price to which cotton has fallen. However, there is hardly any use to say anything as long as the crop is being rushed to market, for that is what is lowering the price rather than the size of the crop. Our cotton growers have been in too much haste themselves.

THE DUPLIN ENTERPRISE

Rose Hill has kept right on developing until a newspaper has been established there by Mr. D. S. Hines, formerly editor of the Eastern Carolina News, of Kenansville. Mr. Hines' new paper is the Duplin Enterprise, and he issued his initial number on Thursday. It is a neat six-column folio and it is sprightly in appearance and contents, being altogether a most excellent local paper. Editor Hines has had ten years experience in the newspaper business, and, since he is a capital editor, Rose Hill is to be congratulated that he has decided that the thrifty town looked good enough to have a newspaper. Rose Hill has doubled its population in ten years, and has demonstrated the enterprise that indicates increasing growth. Along that line there is no more potent factor for development than a newspaper, and the growing town cannot do better by itself than by giving The Enterprise their hearty support and some more if it needs it.

The Turks have massacred 30 helpless Italians who were working on a railroad in Turkish territory. People who do that cannot build a nation that will stand. It will crumble in the presence of civilization.

Just before sailing from New York for Europe last Thursday, Mr. John Arbuckle, the sugar refiner and coffee blender, strongly attacked the tariff on raw sugar, declaring it to be a "wicked tax" for the benefit of the beet and cane sugar interests. The tariff tax on raw sugar is more than a cent and a half per pound, but if it is removed the refiners get the benefit as they are consumers of raw sugar. The consumers of the refined article would like to know where they will come in unless the duty on refined sugar is removed in the same proportion that it is on raw sugar.

Everybody presumes that every Wilmington merchant will lay in a stock of Fall and Winter goods. However, they won't know it to be a fact till each merchant advertises that he is dealing in new goods and is not doing business with left-overs. The fact that a merchant sticks a price tag on a piece of goods in his show window, proves his faith in advertising, but since a tag ad. is seen only by the passer-by, why is it that the goods and the price are not advertised in newspapers where thousands of readers can find out where to get the proper goods at the right kind of prices? Merchants ought to carry their faith beyond the hope of only catching people who peep into their show windows.

CURRENT COMMENT.

If Mr. Roosevelt stole it he managed to get just what we wanted.—Durham Herald.

With all the hustling after an office we presume they will at least let Major Stedman have another term.—Greensboro Record.

Mr. J. T. Fain, formerly of the Telegram, this place, is said to be one of a company to start an afternoon paper in Rock Hill, S. C. It is a fertile field and Mr. Fain knows how to get out a good paper.—Greensboro Record.

The Morning Star, of Wilmington, last week said: "Now there is the name of Attorney General Wickersham. We understand the meaning of 'Sham,' but what on earth does 'Wicker' stand for?" Webster defines "Wicker" as "A small, pliant twig." Perhaps Wickersham is small and pliant in the hands of Mr. Taft and the special interests, and is a sham twig in addition thereto.—Mount Olive Tribune.

The fields have been selected, the date set and the people of this section will soon see the cotton picking machine in operation. The demonstration will cover a period of two weeks, so as to give the farmers ample opportunity to see the machine at work. It is claimed for this Price-Campbell cotton picker that it does the work of about 35 to 50 hand pickers, picking the cotton as well if not better than the hands and without injuring the plant, bolls, and squares. The machine is propelled by a 30-horse power gasoline motor and is operated by one man. A boy accompanies each machine to aid in the removal of the filled bags of cotton and as a general assistant to the driver. The picking mechanism is entirely automatic in its action and consists of two batteries of steel picking spindles or fingers which enter the plant from both sides revolving while in the plant and twining the cotton from the bolls. The fingers then pass through a stripper bar. After the cotton is stripped from the fingers it is conveyed through a cleaning mechanism and all trash is removed so that the cotton when deposited in the bags at the rear of the machine is cleaner in most instances than hand picked. There are 816 picking fingers in the machine, and as it picks but one row at a time it is rarely that the machine leaves cotton unpicked. The percentage has been estimated as high as 95 of open cotton on the stalk picked by this machine. Another interesting feature is the application of power to all four wheels. It is a difficult matter to estimate the value to the farmers of the South of a successful cotton picking machine. The Chronicle believes the demonstration here will convince the people that the cotton picking machine is at last at hand.—Charlotte Chronicle.

NEGRO POPULATION.

Interesting Statistics Compiled by South Carolina Paper.
(Pee Dee Advocate.)

The recent census shows that there were last year 12,256 white inhabitants of Marlboro county, and 18,930 negroes. This is a little more than three negroes to two white people. In 1900 there were 11,226 white and 16,413 colored. The increase in ten years has been 1,030 white and 2,517 colored. The increase in the ten years has been about five negroes to two whites.

In the whole State the whites have increased more rapidly than the negroes, the percentage of increase being 14 1-2 white, and 1 1-2 negroes. The total population of the State was in 1900: 557,807 white, and 782,509 colored; in 1910, 679,162 white, and 836,316 colored.

There are only ten counties in the State that have more whites than negroes. They are Anderson, Cherokee, Chesterfield, Greenville, Horry, Lancaster, Lexington, Oconee, Pickens and Spartanburg.

Pickens has the fewest negroes, 5,430; and Charleston the most, 56,046. Beaufort has the largest percentage of negroes, 87; and Pickens the smallest, 21. Less than one-fourth of the population of Horry is colored. In Branberg, Barnwell, Beaufort, Berkeley, Calhoun, Clarendon, Edgefield, Fairmont, Georgetown, Lee and Sumter, there are more than twice as many negroes as whites. In Cherokee Greenville, Horry, Oconee, Pickens and Spartanburg there are more than twice as many negroes as whites.

The races are nearest even in Lancaster, where there are 13,524 whites, and 13,126 negroes.

The city of Charleston has more negroes than whites, and Columbia, Greenville and Spartanburg more whites than negroes.

Only two States in the Union, South Carolina and Mississippi, have more negro inhabitants than whites.

WAR ON MOSQUITO

Gov. Woodrow Wilson Besought to Help in Extermination.

Orange, N. J., Oct. 9.—Gov. Woodrow Wilson will be asked by the citizens of Orange to send a message to the Legislature on the subject of New Jersey's peculiar affliction, the mosquito, and to recommend that a commission be created with power and means to wage war to the death against the pest.

The mosquitos during the past Summer have been the worst in Orange in years. The resolutions which are to be submitted to Gov. Wilson point out that since the Federal government established so conclusively in the canal zone that the insect would be routed, it is a reproach to New Jersey that it should be allowed to persist here.

UNION DIME SAVINGS BANK

New Wilmington Enterprise Chartered Yesterday by Secretary of State—Capital of $125,000 Authorized.

A special dispatch from Raleigh received too late last night for supplement locally as to details, announces that the Secretary of State has chartered "The Union Dime Savings Bank of Wilmington," with an authorized capital stock of $125,000, and $25,000 paid in.

The incorporators are given as Mr. F. W. Dick, cashier of the People's Savings Bank; Mr. C. E. Taylor, president of the Wilmington Savings & Trust Co.; Mr. J. Holmes Davis, assistant cashier of the People's Savings Bank, and Mr. J. L. Williams, cashier of the Wilmington Savings & Trust Co., all prominent young business men now identified with the banking interests of the city. The charter authorizes a general banking and trust business.

The granting of this charter is the sequel to all manner of rumors afloat during the week as to another banking enterprise in connection with the purchase of valuable realty on North Front street by Jos. W. Little, Esq. Whether there is any connection between the purchase and the organization of the new bank is not known.

A rumor earlier in the week stated that interests connected with the Wilmington Savings & Trust Company were considering the establishment of a dime savings bank in the quarters on Front street now occupied by the company, and still another story had it that the Peoples' Savings Bank's interests were considering the establishment of a similar institution.

As stated yesterday, the banking business in Wilmington has proven exceedingly profitable, and there is little doubt that stock in a new institution will be eagerly subscribed for. The shares in all Wilmington Savings Banks sell at a high premium, and in the case of the older institutions are almost impossible to purchase even at an advance over book value.

THE LETTUCE CROP

Outlook Seems Good in Wilmington Section—Review of Prospects

The current number of the Carolina Fruit and Truckers' Journal has the following editorial of local and general interest:

"The outlook seems good for a healthy lettuce crop in this section the approaching season and especially in the territory tributary to Wilmington. Beds are being freely set and with the favorable seasons of late the plants are looking fine in many instances. Whether or not there will be any appreciable increase in the acreage the coming season over the previous one, remains to be seen. Last season the acreage was larger than usual and proved a very profitable season for the growers. There are just as many people and more to feed today as last year, but whether their purchasing capacity is up to previous years, is another thing.

"Our reports from Florida would indicate quite an increase in lettuce and potato acreage for that State another season. But the Florida lettuce fields are six hundred miles farther from the world's best market and distributing centers than those of North Carolina, which is a big item to be considered. The difference in freight charges alone in favor of the North Carolina growers would be a snug little profit to either grower or dealer. To our way of thinking there is therefore no reason why Florida should ever distance North Carolina in the growth and production of lettuce.

"Beaufort, S. C., has likewise developed into very much of a lettuce point and of late years has made decided progress along this line. As to the increase or decrease of the acreage in that section for the approaching season, we have no figures. One report has it that the acreage in that territory will be reduced while another says it will be increased. By that average rule and from what we can gather, would say that that section will at least hold its own if not show a slight increase. People are learning more and more to eat lettuce and its consumption is greater today than ever before. But the one thing to be impressed upon the growers is the importance of excelling in quality one year after the other. Therein lies the secret of success."

HOTELS ON GROUNDS.

The Star prints the following by request:

In order to insure every comfort and possible pleasure for the thousands who will visit the most epoch-making educational and happiness exposition ever held in the South, plans are being prepared for two large hotels to be built within the enclosure. One of the hotels is to be very luxurious while the other is to be for the accommodation of people of more moderate means. Several options have already been secured for sites for holding this great Winter show. No better way is possible to exploit the marvelous resources of the Southern States, to say nothing of the best advantages of the old world than the Carolinas Cotton & Southern Industrial Agricultural Exposition. To visit an exposition of this kind is to receive the cheapest, best and pleasantest education possible. The cold of the icy North and blizzardly West will compel its people in large numbers to visit the great Southern Exposition held among the balmy pines.

Suit Against the City

Through A. G. Ricaud and Walter P. Gafford, Esqs., his attorneys, Mr. C. C. Harris instituted in Superior Court yesterday morning a suit against the city of Wilmington. While the complaint has not been filed it is understood that the plaintiff will seek to recover alleged damages by reason of the obstruction of his property at 513 Hanover street by the approaches to the bridge across the railroad tracks at Sixth street. The amount of damages that may be asked was not learned. There is some likelihood of the case being settled without going to trial, as it is possible that the city will arrange to give the plaintiff the relief desired.

SEABOARD IMPROVEMENTS

Extensive Grading Is Being Done in Northern Section of City—Rumor of Round House and Coal Depot

With a large force of laborers and teams Mr. J. A. Wallace, the well-known railroad contractor, has begun extensive grading for the Seaboard Air Line on its property in the northern section of the city. The work was commenced the first of the week and is progressing very satisfactorily. It is expected that additional laborers will be employed within a few days, but even then it will require three months or longer to complete the work it is understood.

The grading is being done from Fourth street northwest with the right of way of the Seaboard to Seventh street, and practically all the ground between Howard and Ashe streets and Fourth and Ninth streets, which is owned by the Seaboard, is being graded, presumably for the purpose of laying a number of additional tracks. Mr. Wallace says that he will be engaged in the grading work for three months longer.

Rumor has it that the Seaboard will not only lay additional tracks where grading is now in progress but will erect there a round house, its business in Wilmington, both present and prospective, being of such magnitude as to make it necessary to provide a place for the housing of its locomotives. It is also reported that the Seaboard contemplates the erection of a coaling depot on the property it purchased from the Cape Fear Lumber Co.

The waterworks department of the city has had a small service pipe line laid from Second street to the old Cape Fear mill yard, where the stables of Contractor Wallace are located. The pipe was put down in order to furnish water for the stock used in the grading.

One of the large 24-inch water mains from the pumping station to the city passes under the ground where the grading is being done and it is said that likely the pipe for a short distance will have to be lowered about 15 feet in order that it may be under the new tracks the railroad company proposes to put down. Should the pipe have to be lowered it is said that the expense will have to be borne by the railroad company.

MR. RUGH'S MISTAKE.

Y. M. C. A. Chinese Worker Went to Wilmington, Del.—Meeting.

Preparations had been made at the Y. M. C. A. last night for an informal reception and luncheon in honor of Mr. Arthur Rugh, of the China Y. M. C. A. International Committee, who was expected here on the 6:15 train from the North, but through mistake he went to Wilmington, Del., instead and the occasion was turned into a membership meeting.

A large number of invited friends of the Association had assembled to meet Mr. Rugh and there was much disappointment over his failure to arrive, but the meeting called by Secretary Huntington to talk over membership affairs proved very successful.

Mr. Rugh wired Secretary Huntington that he was at Wilmington, Del., and would catch the first train out of that place, arriving here tonight if he makes the proper connections.

The informal reception has been postponed by Secretary Huntington until Monday night, when all friends of the Association, who were extended an invitation to attend last night are again cordially invited.

While in the city Mr. Rugh will speak at St. Andrew's Presbyterian church at the regular service Sunday morning and in the evening will be at the First Baptist church. Sunday afternoon he will address a mass meeting in the Y. M. C. A.

Mr. Rugh will endeavor to organize a Twenty-Four-Hour-in-the-Day Club at the Y. M. C. A. during his visit here.

WATERWAYS CONVENTION.

Wilmington Will be Well Represented in Richmond, Va.

Considerable interest has been manifested in Wilmington in the fourth annual meeting of the Atlantic Deeper Waterways Association, which will be held at Richmond, Va., next week, beginning Tuesday and continuing through Friday. The Wilmington Chamber of Commerce will be represented by Secretary O. F. Cooper and probably several other members of the organization. President James H. Chadbourn, of the North Carolina Waterways Association, expects to attend, and among the other business men of this section who have signified their intention of going are Messrs. R. A. Parsley, J. F. Roche, Walter Williamson and Eric Norden, of Wilmington, and Messrs. E. D. Pearsall, J. W. Johnson and J. F. Pearsall, of Burgaw.

Trial Was Postponed.

The case against John H. Robinson, colored, charged with forging the name of Mr. Sam Blossom to notes for an amount aggregating $300, was called in the Recorder's court yesterday morning, but the trial was postponed until Monday. Robinson was brought back here Thursday from Norfolk, Va., where he was arrested. He is in jail in default of $300 bond. There was only one other case on the docket for trial and it had to be continued on account of the absence of the defendant, "Hump Back Jack," who is charged with disorderly conduct. A capias was issued for him.

Assault on Wife Charged

Mr. A. J. Shepard, who lives at No. 203 Red Cross street, was arrested about 10 o'clock last night on a warrant charging him with simple assault on his wife, who obtained the warrant from Chief of Police Fowler. The offense is alleged to have been committed last night. Mr. Shepard gave bond for his appearance at trial before the Recorder this morning.

Company B Won Game.

The first game of basketball of the season at the Boys' Brigade armory was played in the gymnasium last night between teams of Company A and Company B. In a splendid contest with a number of exciting features Company B won by a score of 14 to 18. The contest was witnessed by a large number of spectators and heartily enjoyed.

CITY MAY BORE DEEP WELLS

Mayor and Councilman of Public Safety and Expert to Make Investigation on Ground Owned by the County.

Councilman B. C. Moore, in charge of the Department of Public Safety, is firmly convinced that the city should obtain its water supply from deep wells instead of from the river. He has advocated the boring of several wells ever since he has been a member of the City Council and recently in appearing before the County Commissioners on another matter took occasion to inquire if the city could make experiments on property owned by the county about two miles from the city, or a mile from Smith's creek bridge.

Yesterday he made arrangements with Mr. J. D. Lowry, the well known expert well man, to accompany he and Mayor Smith on a trip of inspection Monday afternoon. They are to go over land belonging to the county with a view of designating possible points for drilling wells. They will go out in Councilman Moore's automobile and will probably spend an hour or two in the investigations. Report will probably be made to the Council at Tuesday's meeting of the result of the trip.

Councilman Moore takes the position that it will be necessary to remove the intake several miles up the river if the city water supply is to be free of pollution and even then the water will not be as wholesome as that which might be secured from bored wells. Therefore he is urging that an effort be made to obtain water from bored wells before proceeding with the consideration of the proposition, which has already been before the Council informally, to remove the water intake to a point near Castle Haynes. Councilman Moore is of the opinion that water which would be secured from the bored wells would be purer and at that the cost of securing them would be less than the cost of removing the intake.

The public generally is vitally interested in the question of the public water supply and will await with much interest the final action with reference to boring the wells.

TWO SETS OF BIDS.

Opened Yesterday Morning by Councilman B. C. Moore.

Bids were opened in the office of the Councilman in charge of the Department of Public Safety for furnishing Winter uniforms for the police and firemen and also for improving the floor of the central fire station, on Fourth, between Market and Dock streets. The bids were taken under consideration by Councilman B. C. Moore, who will make recommendations as to the award of the contracts at the meeting of the Council Tuesday afternoon.

Southerland & Weaver and Mr. J. W. H. Fuchs were the only firms to submit bids for furnishing uniforms. Southerland & Weaver submitted proposals to furnish the uniforms, 16 ounce weight, made of Oswego blue serge, at $13.61 a suit, and of Oaks blue cloth at $15.79 a suit. Mr. Fuchs submitted a variety of samples, the cloth ranging in weight from 14 to 16 ounces and in price from $12.65 to $18.50. A second set of bids submitted by Mr. Fuchs the price ranged from $13 to $19. He proposed to furnish caps at $1.50 each.

Three bids were submitted for placing new floor at the central fire station. The Meier Marble & Granite Works offered to lay a cement floor for $494, and a wood block floor for $790; Mr. J. W. Turner proposed to lay a cement floor for $428.20, and Mr. W. L. DeRosset, Jr., for $557.60.

LARCENY IS CHARGED

Roy Shells, Colored, Arrested for Robbing Barber Shop

Charged with the larceny of eight razors, one clipper and a pair of eye glasses from the barber shop of Wm. Brown, colored, at Sixth and Campbell streets, Roy Shells, colored, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Melvin Horne. In default of $100 bond the negro was committed to jail to await trial in the Recorder's court. Some of the property alleged to have been stolen has been recovered, having been found at the barber shop of E. D. Guion, No. 124 Market street. Guion told Justice Bornemann that Shells left the property with him and told him to sell the articles for whatever price he could get for them. Guion was suspicious and made report of the matter. Shells admitted to officers that he carried the razors and clipper to Guion and asked him to sell them for him.

The warrant upon which Shells was arrested was issued by Justice Bornemann before whom the preliminary hearing took place yesterday afternoon. The negro was bound over to the Recorder's court and in default of $100 bond was committed to jail. Justice Bornemann said that an effort was made to have him accept the costs and dismiss the case, but that he does not do business that way.

MAKES TIMELY SUGGESTION.

Should Provide Revolving Door or Vestibule at Postoffice.

While standing in the lobby of the postoffice yesterday watching the painters as they made stroke after stroke with their brushes, each stroke making for the beauty of the interior of the building, an observant citizen suggested that now that extensive improvements are being made on Uncle Sam's building under the general supervision of Postmaster Thos. E. Wallace, an important part of the improvements should be the installation of a revolving door, or vestibule, leading to the lobby from the Front street entrance. Either a revolving door, such as is in use at The Orton Hotel, across the street, or a vestibule with double doors would be satisfactory, said the observant citizen, who called attention to the fact that a lady was hit in the face last Winter by one of the old-fashioned doors now in use and was all but seriously hurt. He said that there is probably no other city in the country the size of Wilmington that hasn't got an improved entrance to its postoffice building. Postmaster Wallace will no doubt give the suggestion due consideration.

A DELIGHTFUL SOCIABLE

Enjoyable Affair Given at Boys' Brigade Last Night by Epworth League—J. Leon Williams, Esq., Feature

A social under the auspices of the Epworth League of Fifth Street M. E. Church at the Boys' Brigade armory last night, interspersed with a programme of delightful musical and literary numbers, proved an eventful occasion of unusual interest, which was thoroughly enjoyed by a large crowd.

Every feature was carried out in a most pleasing and entertaining manner and particular praise is due J. Leon Williams, Esq., of Newbern, better known among his best friends as "Reddy" Williams, who was a popular graduate of the class of '07 of Trinity College, for the splendid manner in which he gave his portion of the programme as a humorist and reader. His unusual wit and fine sense of humor was striking and the audience was more than pleased with his many "funny" stories and humorous remarks. For a number of years he was the star member of the glee club sent out by his alma mater and while a student his excellent talents at entertaining attracted much attention and has since gained for him some degree of renown. His sarcastic and witty impersonations kept the audience in a roar of laughter throughout the time he held the platform.

There was a number of other delightful selections on the programme that were given in the folowing order: Piano duet, Miss Hattie Gardner and Miss Camilla Fleet; baritone solo, "The Rosary," Mr. A. H. Elmer; selection, Acme Quartete; soprano solo, Miss Lucile Riley; selection, Acme Male Quartete.

The splendid singing of the Acme Male Quartette, which is often heard at Fifth Street Church, and the Boys' Brigade, was indeed pleasing last night and the two selections rendered by them brought forth much applause from the audience. The soprano solo of Miss Riley was accorded the highest praise from the many who heard her.

Following the rendition of the programme delightful refreshments were served consisting of ice cream, cake, candies and hot chocolates and a large crowd remained to take advantage of this delightful feature. It was one of the most enjoyable sociables of the season and all present spent a delightful evening.

FAVOR HUNGRY BLUFF SITE.

Where People of New Hanover and Pender Want Northeast Bridge.

The following from this week's issue of the Pender Chronicle, published at Burgaw, will be read with decided interest in this city, where the sentiment as to the proper site for the bridge over the Northeast river at Castle Haynes, is about the same as in Pender:

"The people of Pender county are constantly asking us questions about the bridge across the Northeast river at Castle Haynes. The last information we received was the Commissioners of Pender and New Hanover had employed engineers to investigate and locate the bridge at the best possible site. We also noticed in Friday's Star that the New Hanover bridge bonds had been sold and the money in the county treasury. Pender county has already half of her amount in the treasury.

"With the money thus in hand why is the bridge not started? Opposition to the Blossom's Ferry site will never die out and we need the bridge now. The people of both Pender and New Hanover want the bridge at Hungry Bluff. They are willing to pay the difference if there be any. It is cheaper for Pender to build the bridge at Hungry Bluff, even though it should cost a little more than to go to the expense of building a dam through the river swamp at Blossom's and sand-claying the sand beds between there and Rocky Point.

"If the Commissioners of the two counties are afraid to build the bridge at Hungry Bluff because it may cost a little more, then let them refer the matter to the people. Such reference however, is not necessary, as the people are already plainly in favor of the shortest, and in the long run, the cheapest location, which is Hungry Bluff."

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

Several Deeds Filed for Record at Court House Yesterday.

Deeds were filed for record yesterday as follows: Elizabeth Scull and husband, D. S. Scull, for $1,000 and other considerations, to A. C. Wooten, lot on southeast corner of Fifth and Red Cross streets, 66x74 feet in size; by another deed Wooten transfers the property to Chas. C. Loughlin, Esq., for $1,000 and other considerations; The American Suburban Corporation to B. O. Stone, for $1,100, four lots at Carolina Place, same being lots 5 and 6 in block 8, and lots 6 and 7 in block 14; Carolina Real Estate Trust Co., to Jusef Mrozowski, of Pittsburg, Pa., for $10 and other considerations, farms No. 61 and 63 of the Marathon tract; L. W. Moore and wife to John R. Hawes, for $100 and other considerations, two lots, one on east side of Eighth, 160 feet south of Howard street, 32x150 feet in size, and the other on west side of Brooklyn street, 225 feet south of Howard, 30x75 feet in size.

Claims He Was Robbed.

A man giving his name as J. P. Brown claims to have been held up and robbed by four well dressed white men of prepossessing appearance at 14th and Market streets shortly after 11 o'clock Thursday night while on his way home at Carolina Place. He says the men got about $27. Two men, he says, held his hands behind him while the other two rifled his pockets. The men then ran, he said. He haled a man passing on a bicycle and told him the story of the hold-up, hoping to secure his assistance in catching the men but the bicyclist did not appear interested and got on his wheel and rode away. Mr. Brown commented upon the lack of police protection in that end of town and says that although he has passed out that way every morning at 4:30 o'clock for a long time he has never seen an officer in that territory.

CHILD HAS RECOVERED

Little Girl Run Over by Automobile—New Theatre in Raleigh—Notes

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 13.—At last it can be stated with assurance that little Emma Hamilton, the seven-year-old girl run down about a month ago by an automobile driven by Mr. H. C. Bridgers, of Tarboro, will recover. Her physicians discharged her as a patient today. For three weeks her life hung as it were, by a thread and she was thought to be dying repeatedly. There were throngs of school children passing at the time of the accident and Mr. Bridgers was driving with caution, every one admitting the accident as practically unavoidable owing to the undue fright of the child. Mr. Bridgers has provided the medical and trained nurse attention and spared no expense in aiding in the effort to save the life of the child. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Hamilton.

The Raleigh Development Co., was chartered today with $125,000 capital for development of the Raleigh Academy of Music property through the erection of a splendid new Academy of Music and utilizing the present building for other purposes. The company also has power to carry on real estate development generally. There is $50,000 capital subscribed by H. E. Litchford, Dr. J. R. Rogers, R. W. Winston and the Raleigh Real Estate and Trust Co.

In the course of his address before the alumni of the University of North Carolina at the banquet here last night by the Wake Alumni Association, Dr. Edwin Mims paid tribute to present day alumni as measuring up to the high standards of past generations, and mentioned Mr. George Stevens, of Charlotte, to whom he accorded the high credit of building a splendid suburban town, of directing a great financial institution in the Queen City and of taking a large part in the further development of one of the greatest newspapers of the South, as he expressed it, The Charlotte Observer.

ADJT. WILLIAMS TO LEAVE.

Well-Known Salvation Army Worker Transferred to Georgia

It will be learned with interest and regret by their many friends in the city, that Adjutant and Mrs. George Williams, who have been in charge of the local post of the Salvation Army for a little over two years, have been ordered to Columbus, Ga., where they will assume charge of the post at that place in about two weeks.

Adjutant Williams has accomplished a good work in this city and has been persistent and consecrated in his efforts to carry out the religious work assigned to him in this community. Adjutant and Mrs. Williams have extended willing hands at all times to the unfortunates and have aided the poor in a manner that makes them worthy of much praise and deep regret will be expressed at their departure.

They came to this city from Winston-Salem, succeeding Adjutant and Mrs. Yates, who are well remembered here, and they will carry with them the best wishes of the community in their new field of endeavor.

MARINE NOTES

Schooner for Cargo of Davidson—Clearance for Georgetown, S. C.

The schooner Sylvia C. Hall, 285 tons, Capt. Sprague, arrived at Southport yesterday from New York. She comes for the cargo of lumber of the schooner James Davidson, recently sold here after having been towed into Southport in distress. Both the Hall and Davidson will be towed up to the city today and arrangements will be made for transfer of the cargo.

The schooner Rebekah R. Douglas cleared yesterday for Georgetown, S. C., for cargo of lumber. Both vessels are to Messrs. C. D. Maffitt & Co.

PRICE OF COFFEE ADVANCING.

Market Jumped a Cent a Pound in New York.

New York, Oct. 13.—Following the already sensational advances of the last several weeks, there was a jump of practically a cent a pound in the local coffee market today, which carried December contracts up to 14.45, or within five points of the recently predicted 15 cent level. Business surpassed in volume anything ever noted except in times of extreme excitement and approximated 400,000 bags for the day. The market closed only a few point off from the top with the tone steady at prices which ranged anywhere from 78 to 102 points above the closing figures Wednesday.

The continued unfavorable weather in Brazil, and private cables reporting that the October flowering was turning out practically a failure, thus suggesting a small crop for next season, together with big advances both in the Brazilian and European markets and reports that leading roasting interests were sweping the local spot market bare of supplies at sharply advancing range of prices, was responsible for the day's excitement.

Coffee roasters, or packers of special packages in most instances avoid "splitting the nickel" in naming their ultimate prices, and while the buyer of roasted coffee for home consumption is probably paying five cents a pound more on the average than he did six months ago, the more recent advances in the unroasted berry apparently have yet to make themselves felt in the retail situation.

An Important Meeting.

All members of Cape Fear Council No. 374, U. C. T., are urgently requested to attend the regular meeting tonight at 8:15 o'clock sharp. At this meeting the Winter campaign will be outlined both socially and from a business standpoint. A very large attendance is earnestly desired.

MR. CROWSON RETIRES.

Editor and Owner of Burlington News Has Sold His Paper Interest.

Burlington, N. C., Oct. 12.—O. F. Crowson, owner and editor of the Burlington News, announces that he has sold the Burlington News to Rev. R. M. Andrews, of Henderson. Mr. Crowson has been editor of the Burlington News for 15 years, and the paper is winding up its 28th volume.

Mr. Crowson has been actively identified with the business interests of Burlington since he came here and has been connected with many of the business enterprises of the city. He has been actively connected with the Alamance Insurance and Real Estate Company, one of the largest loan and trust companies of the city, since its organization five years ago, and sells his paper in order that he may become manager of a real estate and loan company in another city.

Mr. Crowson was secretary and treasurer of the chamber of commerce of this city for many years and was secretary and treasurer of the city of Burlington for a number of years, and has been a factor in the growth and progress of the city. His action in selling his paper is very much regretted here, but the best wishes of his many friends go with him wherever he may go.

Mr. Andrews takes charge of the paper the first of December. He will give his entire time to the paper.

COMPLETE BIG COAL MERGER

Stocks Pass on Deal Involving $18,000,000 Through Steel Trust

Pittsburg, Oct. 13.—Final transfers of stock have been made absorption of the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal & Coke Company by the Pittsburg Coal Company.

The Pittsburg Coal Company has been the greatest bituminous coal mining corporation in the world. It has 60 mines in the Pittsburg district and employs upward of 30,000 men.

Both companies recently transferred great coking tracts to the United States Steel Corporation in a deal involving $18,000,000. It is on these properties in Washington county where H. C. Frick contemplates expending $3,000,000 for new coke ovens.

WHITES RALLY TO AID NEGRO.

Raise Money to Defend Him While on Trial for Murder.

Georgetown, Del., Oct. 13—The trial of Isaac J. Short, colored, of Lewes, for killing Phillip Wilson, another negro, began here, after several hours had been consumed in obtaining a jury. The alleged crime is said to have been started by Wilson, who was from Maryland, and who had been making trouble in the colored section of Lewes all one evening. It was while trying to enter the home of Short he was shot. Short claiming that the killing was in self defense. White residents of Lewes have raised a considerable sum of money with which to defend Short, and the case is expected to consume several days.

DEFIES SIDEWALK WORKERS.

Police Called to Keep Irate Hotel Keeper in Check.

Egg Harbor City, N. J., Oct. 13.—Aroused over the sidewalk paving question, which is causing excitement here, Robert Will, a prominent hotelkeeper, yesterday stood in his doorway with a revolver and threatened to shoot the first man that attempted to work on his sidewalk. The foreman and contractor argued with him in vain, and so convincing was his pistol that no one dared try to work. The mayor and several councilmen were called, but Will held his ground.

Policemen were finally called and work was proceeded with. The paving is compulsory under a city ordinance.

Retroit, Oct. 13.—The Michigan Daughters of the American Revolution intend, if they are able, to put a stop to the practice of printing American flags and other National emblems on napkins or constructing them on cakes. At yesterday's annual convention the practice was deemed unpatriotic and the Daughters decided to try to convince everybody concerned in Michigan to abide by their judgment. No time limit was placed on the undertaking.

Kansas City, Oct. 13.—While United States Senator James B. Reed was making an argument for the State in the hearing of Dr. B. C. Hyde, charged with the murder of Col. Thomas H. Swope today, the physician, uttering a threat, sprang toward the senator. Mrs. Hyde pulled Hyde back into his seat and the hearing proceeded.

IREDELL MURDERER

Walter Russell Still at Large---Details of the Crime

Statesville, Oct. 13. Although officers and citizens have been in search of him ever since the tragedy, Walter Russell, who killed June Summers in the northern section of the county, is still at large. It is believed, however that he will be taken into custody within a day or two. Sheriff Deaton received particulars of the tragedy yesterday. A number of young men had gathered at a blacksmith shop near a saw mill operated by Jos. Church, and according to the story told by some of these, the circumstances were about as follows:

Summers and another one of the crowd were pulling "square heel" when one accused the other of unfairness and a dispute followed, Russell "butted in," it is said, and sided against Summers and he and Summers cursed each other. Suddenly Summers seized a piece of iron pipe and about the same time Russell picked up a piece of an old wagon tongue and struck Summers such a terrific blow on the head that he fell to the ground unconscious with his skull crushed. As his victim fell Russell stepped off a few feet and remarked: "If any of you think I won't kill you, you are a damn fool." He then ran away and has since been dodging the officers and citizens who are working for the $50 reward offered for his arrest.

ROBBED DISGUISED BANK

Grandson's Visits to Applebutter Crooks Beggared Old Woman

York, Pa., Oct. 13.—York county's meanest thief, related before Alderman Keech here how he had systematically robbed his grandmother of $500, her total savings of years, squandering the money in a few months.

The aged woman, Mrs. Kate Beard, of Newberry township, had placed her savings in an apple-butter crock, and, tying it shut in careful limitation of others containing preserves, had placed all together up in the garret. Oscar Beard, aged 24, a robust grandson, confessed that he had ferreted out the improvised bank months ago, had taken a little at a time, and finally emptied the crock. On that visit Beard climbed a ladder and broke into the house through a second-story window. When Mrs. Beard discovered the broken window she looked for her savings and discovered her loss.

She wept this morning as she heard her grandson's confession. "How could you spend all that money in so short a time?" she said, "when it took me so long to save it?"

The defendant will go before court with his story Monday and receive sentence.

CAR CUTS CHILD'S THROAT.

Slips and Trolley Wheels Pass Over Her Neck.

Reading, Pa., Oct. 13.—Slipping under a trolley car, Catherine, 5-year-old daughter of Charles W. Wanner, a business man, was instantly killed in the business section of this city.

The child was in the act of running across the street. When she fell the wheels passed over her neck, almost severing the head from her body, and both legs were tangled in the car springs.

COLD CAUSED A WRECK

Mrs. Mitchell Has Weary Search for Relief. Physicians State No Hope for Recovery

Morganton, N. C.—"My health had been a wreck for years," says Mrs. C. C. Mitchell, of this city.

"When I was 16 years old, I commenced to suffer. I caught cold, and it went into fever.

I stayed in bad health, and though I used all kinds of medicine, I got no relief, until I tried Cardui, the woman's tonic.

Cardui cured me. It is the best medicine I ever used. I cannot praise it enough.

Then, some time ago, I was taken down again very bad. The doctors all said I could not live, and they gave me up. I used Cardui and was greatly relieved. Now, I am entirely well.

Cardui is a good medicine and worth its weight in gold! I will keep it in my home all the time, as I do not want to be without it."

Do you wonder why Cardui is so popular, when it has cured so many sick and ailing women, after other medicines had failed?

The reason is that it goes to the spot that needs attention and does the work that is required.

All women need Cardui, the woman's tonic—at times. When you do, will you try it? Please do.

George Barr McCutcheon, when he wrote "Graustark", had the foresight to lay the scene of his romance amidst beautiful surroundings. Snow capped mountains, green valleys, old world architecture, castles and throne room follow each other in description after description forming a veritable kaleidoscope of scenic grandeur. This is fortunate for the producer and scenic artist, and Messrs. Baker & Castle, the managers, have endeavored faithfully to compete with Mr. McCutcheon's word picture—and with success.

Nothing could be prettier than the view from the terrace of the Hotel Regengetz, with the picturesque city of Edelweiss nestling on the shores of a beautiful lake in the valley below, a broad boulevard leads up to a fine old fortified castle on the heights beyond the city, and a majestic, snow capped peak pierces the distant sky.

ALLENE DURANO,
As Countess, in "Graustark," Matinee and Night Today.

When the twilight deepens it is even more beautiful. The lights from the castle and the nearer lights of the city mingle with the long rows of lamps that illuminate the royal boulevard, while the last rays of the sun gild the lofty peak.

The Princess' boudoir is an exact reproduction of a room in an old European palace. It is dark in tone, with mullioned windows overlooking the castle terrace of Yetive's soldier father over the mantle.

The throne room is magnificent. Being a state apartment it is more brilliant in coloring, with heavy gold frieze and marble doors and throne arch. The panels are beautiful mural paintings of battle scenes, representing Graustark's past victories. Castle & Harvey, the artists, justly pride themselves on this production as the most artistic their studios have ever turned out.

"Graustark" comes to the Academy today, for matinee and night. The matinee will be especially interesting as it will be a popular price one—25 and 50 cents. Seats for tonight are on sale at Plummer's. The highest price goes to but $1.00, save for box seats.

Big Musical Comedy Next Tuesday.

Tuesday night of next week, October 17th, at the Academy of Music, will be the new musical comedy "The Winning Widow", introducing Perle Barti, Joe M. Fields and Geo. B. Scanlon. "The Winning Widow" tells a laughable story in an unique way, embellished by a large chorus of pretty girls, and special and massive sets for every act of this gorgeous production.

The book was written by Frank Kennedy, the lyrics by Will Heelan, and the music by Seymour Furth. The names of these well known contributors to the musical world, is sufficient guarantee that what has been written is pretty, catchy, tuneful and well worth hearing, and, in this instance worth hearing twice; for these three gentlemen have achieved a notable success. In "The Winning Widow" there is something for everybody to do every moment of the play, and everybody is necessary to the completion of the story and the pictures. The cast supporting Miss Barti, and Messrs. Fields and Scanlon has been selected with the view of individual fitness and collective strength. Mr. Max Spiegel has spared neither time, money or labor, in the perfecting of the comedy, and it is safe to say "The Winning Widow" will play to a capacity house.

Seats will go on sale Monday.

At the Bijou

Saturday at the popular Bijou. Amusement lovers of Wilmington long ago learned to joyously anticipate the week-end at their favorite spot, because the Bijou always presents something extra good on Saturday. It has never failed to do so yet, and it is not going to disappoint its hundreds and hundreds of patrons and admirers today. It has prepared a fine and big bill for today and it will, of course, be served up in the sweet manner so peculiar to the Bijou. The music for today is going to be all new, catchy, novel and ojlly, while the films are the latest and the best. Fun is going to play a large part in today's bill and a real novelty will be introduced in a western travesty photo-play, called "The Maiden of the Pie-Faced Indians." Its very name suggests a scream and it is. "Ha, ha, Minnie," is the bright heroine of the film. Among the other films is a powerful dramatic picture of rugged and daring life on the plains, "The Squaw's Mistaken Love."

The New Lyric.

The programme for today at the New Lyric is of an all-star class and the day will bring to a close one of the best vaudeville bills ever offered here. This is positively the last chance to hear Billy Lacelles, the champion song composer of the world in his ingenious sketch of comedy, the human incubator. This is followed by James and Farleigh in a clever comedy, the "New Bell Boy". This is a scream from start to finish. Two reels of the best motion pictures are also given. Theatre-goers are asked to look out for the big new bill for next week. It is said to be the biggest one yet offered.

The Grand.

For today the Grand has two leaders, the first being a Vitagraph production entitled "Daddy's Boy and Mammy." This is the story of a boy hero of the Civil War, in which he faces the enemy and grave dangers to his own life to aid his father to gain his freedom from prison. This is an amazingly beautiful scenic production and will be found extremely interesting, and every school child should see it. The second is a Kalem picture entitled, "The Alpine Lease," a story of the oil fields. It is founded on an actual occurrence which happened in the Bakersville oil regions a few years ago. The poor operator who struck oil in a supposedly dry well afterwards realized over $60,000. Nat Hilt will sing "That Railroad Rag," which has made one of the biggest hits of recent years, as a real raggy, melodious travesty.

A man takes his party politics so seriously that the Ten Commandments become a joke to him.

COL. CORNELL DEAD.

Chief Engineer in Building of Southbound Passes Away.

Winston-Salem, N. C., Oct 13.—Col. O. P. H. Cornell, an eminent civil engineer, died here this morning after a brief illness. He was aged 75. He was a son of the founder of Cornell University and a brother of the late Governor of New York.

Interment will be at his former home at Albany, N. Y.

Col. Cornell was chief engineer in the building of the Southbound Railway from Winston-Salem to Wadesboro.

Colonel Cornell died suddenly at his home from uraemia. He is survived by a widow and seven children. His distinguished father was a partner with Morse in the invention and construction of the first telegraph line.

New Orleans, Oct. 13.—Joe Thomas will meet Joe Mandot in an eight round bout at the Orleans Athletic Club tonight in the charity hospital benefit card. Thomas will meet Pat Brown in a ten round affair next Monday night and Mandot will box 20 rounds with Young Saylor at the West Side Athletic Club on Oct. 23rd.

Uneeda Biscuit never disappoint!

You have never heard anyone say—"The Uneeda Biscuit in that last package were not as good as usual."

You have never said it yourself.

It is one thing to make soda crackers that are occasionally good.

It is quite another thing to make them so that they are not only always better than all other soda crackers, but always of unvarying goodness.

The name "Uneeda"—stamped on every one of them—means that if a million packages of Uneeda Biscuit were placed before you, you could choose any one of them, confident that every soda cracker in that package would be as good as the best Uneeda Biscuit ever baked.

COTTON IS MOVING DOWNWARD

New Low Records Again on the Market Yesterday—Loss of From 12 to 27 Points for the Day. Features.

New York, Oct. 13.—New low records were made in the cotton market today under heavy selling, much of which was attributed to the South, with the close steady, but at a net loss of from 12 to 27 points for the day.

The market opened easy at a decline of 7 to 18 points in response to the weakness of Liverpool over the local holiday and an accummulation of Southern selling orders, which was supposed to be in the way of hedging spot supplies in the interior. Realizing by recent sellers was extremely active and there was quite a good deal of demand from trade interests on a scale down with the result that early fluctuations were somewhat irregular but the offerings continued very heavy and after the bulk of the demand from shorts had been supplied the market again weakened, selling off to 9.13 for October; 9.30 for December, and 9 14 for January, or about 26 to 28 points under the closing prices of Wednesday. Covering imparted rather a steadier tone to the market later, but last prices were only a shade up from the lowest. Weather reports showed scattering showers or rains in the South over the holiday, but there appeared to have been no high winds and with no appearance of frost in the belt, there was nothing in the Southern news apparently, to cause any reduction in estimates of the crop while the continued heavy Southern selling here was considered by local bears as confirming, in some measure, many private reports of weakness in the interior Southern spot markets, particularly as the markets officially reported showed general declines.

It was claimed by some operators that the trade buying here was more active than recently and spinners were supposed to be calling cotton on a scale down but the demand from this source was said to have been far smaller than the offerings from the South and as the market broke into new low ground, it looked as though many local traders who had bought for a reaction earlier in the week, were liquidating their holdings, if not again taking the short side on the reports of lower Southern spot markets

Receipts today, 91,247 bales, against 60,288 last week, and 79,054 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans, 5,011 against 3,798 last year, and at Houston, 29,102, against 10,558 last year.

STOCKS SLIGHTLY HIGHER

General Firm Tone During the Day—Vigorous Upward Movement in Last Half Hour of Session. American Tobacco.

New York, Oct. 13.—Moderately higher prices prevailed at the close of today's session of the stock exchange which was characterized by the same firm tone as on recent days. The general situation remained unchanged in its essential features bearing upon the securities market and during the greater part of the day trading was dull and price movements were nominal.

A vigorous upward movement in the last half hour of the same description as that which occurred at the close of the preceding session established a higher range of prices. The Harriman stocks, Reading, Lehigh Valley, Northern Pacific, Atchison and Amalgamated Copper all gained a point or more and United States Steel nearly a point.

Trading in American Tobacco securities was the conspicuous feature of the day. Dealings in the 4 per cent. bonds amount to $5,580,000. Within the first ten minutes of trading, bonds to the par value of nearly $1,000,000 changed hands at rapidly rising prices. The fours rose from 90 to 90 3-4. On the curb the common stock soared 13 points. A good deal of importance was attached to the strength displayed in these securities and the movement stimulated the general market. Trading in the tobacco issues was based to a great extent upon the belief that the plan for dissolution and re-organization of the company would be filed in court today. When the official announcement was made that the plan would not be filed this week, the tobacco issues lost part of their gains.

General Electric responded to the decree of the Federal Courts ordering the dissolution of the electrical combine with a gain of a point, although it subsequently fell back. American Beet Sugar reached a new record in its upward movement.

Largely on account of the enormous dealings in American Tobacco securities, the day's trading in the bond market was the heaviest for more than two years. Prices were generally higher and there was a larger inquiry for the more conservative issues.

Steel makers reported an increasing volume of business as a consequence of lower prices. Bank exchanges this week make an indifferent comparison with last year, the total having fallen slightly.

Total sales of bonds par value $8,382,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales 370,400 shares.

SOUTH CONTINUED TO SELL

And Prices Kept Tumbling---According to Weekly Review—Rally Is Expected Later—Some Influences On the Market

New York, Oct. 13.—Prices of cotton have declined on a large speculation. The South has been a steady and persistent seller, crop accounts have been favorable, receipts at times immense, the spot markets dull, and prices as stated have receded still further.

In Western Texas, it is asserted that triple the amount of cotton will be raised than was raised last year. For a month and a half the weather conditions at the South have been ideal. Predictions of as high as even 16,000,000 bales have been current. Large Nickel interests recently identified with the bull side, are, it is asserted, heavily short.

Prominent people associated with the bull campaign of last year when August contracts were 1-4c over the price of spot cotton, at 20 cents, as against 19.75, respectively, have turned to the bearish side of the argument. Moreover, prominent speculative interests known as the Waldorf Astoria element have been selling persistently and heavily and it seems have now the power, the prestige and incidentally the profits. Judging from their recent continued selling they are confident apparently that prices must seek a lower level. In the past week more than half a million bales of short contracts have been retired by large interests who believe that after an almost vertical drop of 4 1-2 cents since early in June an upward reaction, even if only temporary is among the possibilities. Spinners at home and abroad are buying more freely. Large Fall River cotton mills are starting up. At Manchester a fire was reported which it is understood has destroyed some of the raw cotton stored there. Latterly, although rallies have been feeble. Nevertheless they have occurred and some resiliency as to prices has been apparent. Many think present prices amply discount that that can be against the market on the score of a big crop and unsatisfactory trade. The tendency is to overcrowd the short side. Frost scares may come at any time. Many think the crop is being over estimated. Also the price is so low that on any singns of rally, spinners, it is believed, will greatly increase their purchases and are likely to buy much more than they actually require fearing higher prices next season with perhaps a smaller crop. Lancashire is having a good trade. American exports of cotton goods this year made no bad exhibit. Holding back is beginning to be reported at the South. Some think that the South has in the past demonstrated its ability to do some purpose.

BRADSTREET'S REVIEW.

Conservatism Dominating Demand in All Lines—Price Levels.

New York, Oct. 13.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say: The conditions over the week still show the effects of conservatism dominating demand in all lines, but on balance the business done this week has been larger,the one holiday considered. The current of trade the country over is running rather fuller than a year ago at this date. This is, however, not due so much to any marked improvement this year as it is to comparison being with lessening volume a year ago. Retail trade has been unquestionably benefitted by cooler weather and this is probably reflected in the many small but in the aggregate large, sales by jobbers. Evidence of stocks being light is found in the very general demands for quick delivery which have kept packing room forces busy.

Evidences of lower prices for raw and manufactured cotton affecting buyers and limiting orders are frequent, but the output of the country's mills is unquestionably larger at present than for a number of months past.

The iron and steel trade is fairly well employed, though evidently at the expense of values. Collections do not show any improvement. Indeed, the backwardness of Western crop movement reflected in the reports of smaller railway tonnage and the lower price of cotton at the South (four cents below last year) are blamed for the rather slower movement noted here.

Business failures in the United States for the week ending October 12th, were 212 against 201 last week, and 223 in the like week of 1910.

HESTER'S REPORT.

World's Supply of Cotton as Seen by New Orleans Statistician.

New Orleans, Oct. 13.—Secretary Hester's statement of the world's visible supply of cotton issued today shows:

The total visible 2,763,079 bales against 2,485,561 last week and 2,386,385 last year. Of this the total of American cotton is 2,226,079 against 1,932,561 last week and 1,884,386 last year, and of all other kinds, including Egypt, Brazil, India, etc. 537,000 bales against 552,000 last week and 542,000 last year.

Of the world's visible supply of cotton there is now afloat and held in Great Britain and Continental Europe 1,382,000 against 1,268,000 last year; in Egypt 53,000 against 82,000 last year; in India 273,000 against 232,000 last year, and in the United States 1,053,000 against 804,000 last year.

Averts Awful Tragedy.

Timely advice given Mrs. C. Willoughby, of Marengo, Wis., (R. No. 1) prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. Doctors had said her frightful cough was a "consumption" cough and could do little to help her. After many remedies failed, her aunt urged her to take Dr. King's New Discovery. "I have been using it for some time," she wrote, "and the awful cough has almost gone. It also saved my little boy when taken with a severe bronchial trouble." This matchless medicine has no equal for throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy.

show to more sensitive, too, to opposition rooting, it was said, and would pitch steadier ball at home than in Philadelphia. The veteran Christy Mathewson is the fore fit, the fans figured, for facing the opponents on their home grounds. "All the men are in fine fettle," said Manager McGraw, "and they are going to win."

The prevailing price was $10 a seat for each game. Many rooters for the Athletics who are going to New York tomorrow to cheerd for their favorites paid the price today so as to insure admittance to the Polo Grounds.

President Shibe, of the Philadelphia American League club, emphatically denied tonight that there had been any collision with speculators in the sale of the tickets by the local club. He offered to open the books to public inspection in order that any one can see just who received the club's allotment.

Athletics' Rousing Send-Off.

Philadelphia, Oct. 13.—The American League champions received a rousing send-off from hundreds of local fans at North Philadelphia station when the team under the guidance of Connie Mack left for New York to defend their title of champions of the world. The players were cheered individually and collectively and cries of "Go, get them, you white elephants", and other words of encouragement filled the air as the train pulled out of the station. Of even greater interest than the departure of the train was the question which has arisen among the local followers of the game as to how they are going to get admittance to the games in the series.

In spite of the fact that only four seats were announced to be sold to each applicant and the great majority of intending purchasers were denied the privilege in advance sale by the club, speculators appear to have an almost unlimited supply of the pasteboards. The regular ticket offices in the big hotels here were offering seats not only for the games here, but for the contest waged in New York.

MAY REMAIN IN AIR A MONTH.

Wrights Seeking to Solve Aerial Craft Problems.

Manteo, N. C., Oct. 12.—Orville Wright, one of the brothers of that hame who have won fame as aviators and who is now at Kill Devil Hill for the purpose of putting to the test some ideas in flying machine construction, today talked of the experiment which he is here to make.

The machine, or glider with which he is to conduct the experiments has not yet arrived at the camp, although it was expected today. There are still matters pertaining to the tests that are to be made here which Wright prefers to keep secret. He will give no accurate description of the new aerial creation or just wherein it differs from the old.

"It is like our old glider," he said, "except" and the exceptions are what he does not make plain.

"Our record for soaring in the old glider was 1 minute and 20 seconds," he said, in response to a question.

Asked if he expected that the glider could be made to stay up twice as long as the best record made by the old, he looked rather surprised and replied:

"We would not consider that we have made much progress did we not."

"How long do you believe it possible for this new machine to remain in the air?"

"Perhaps a month," replied Wright, but a smile was on his face. "We have known certain things for a good many years which we are now going to put to the test. We have not done so before because we have not had the time."

The old gliding machine of the Wrights weighed 112 pounds and the new 140, Wright explained.

Manteo, N. C., Oct. 13.—Orville Wright's newest flying machine arrived this afternoon at the combination hangar and cottage on the sands of Kill Devil, in which Mr. Wright and his guests are spending what the former declares is merely a vacation. The machine was landed from a steamer at Collington Bay, near Kitty Hawk station, early this morning and was brought on to the Wright camp in a box car. About six hours work will assemble and put it in shape for operation, and Mr. Wright says there will be a flight tomorrow if there is a 20 or 25 mile breeze blowing. Reports that the new flyer is to be a world startler are belittled by Orville Wright. He says he came South to spend a vacation and at the same time try out his latest machine, which is of the "glider" type, and which he hopes will glide considerably farther than any flyer yet invented. He and his friends, he declares, are out chiefly for recreation.

OF MT. AIRY GRANITE.

Monument to Virginia Soldiers Who Fought at Gettysburg.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 13.—Final approval of the plans for the monument to be erected in honor of the Virginia soldiers who fought at Gettysburg was given today at a meeting of the State Gettysburg Monument Commission. The model is practically complete and was approved. Sculptor Siewers thereupon immediately awarded the sub-contract for the base of the monument, which is to be of Mount Airy, N. C., granite, the commissioners decreeing that it should be of Southern stone. The memorial is to be a group mainly allegorically, but surmounted by an equestrian status of General Robert E. Lee.

TAFT IN 'FRISCO.

Heartiest Welcome of His Trip at Pacific Coast Metropolis.

San Francisco, Oct. 13.—President Taft found what may prove to be the heartiest welcome of his trip awaiting him here tonight. He had spent the entire day in the State, traveling down from the Northern border, where Governor Hiram W. Johnson and a party of officials met him.

Governor Johnson is the insurgent Republican leader in the State. He used few words and invariably referred to Mr. Taft as the "President of the United States."

At the State capitol, Sacramento, Mr. Taft spent two hours and spoke from the capitol steps.

Governor Johnson did not attend the banquet in honor of the President to night, pleading a previous engagement, but will speak with him tomorrow at the ground-breaking ceremonies of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, to be held in celebration of the formal opening of the Panama canal in 1915.

The acceptance by President Taft of an invitation to turn the spadefull of earth at the ceremonies was one of the engagements which carried him on the 13,000 mile tour. In his speeches today Mr. Taft often referred to the exposition and said he was sure it would be another exemplification of the manner in which California and San Francisco "do big things." He was enthusiastically cheered.

Throughout the day great crowds turned out to greet the President. Mr. Taft will remain here until Sunday night.

WEALTHY SALOONISTS INDICTED

Violated Sunday Closing Law in Atlantic City.

Mays Landing, N. J., Oct. 13.—Wealthy saloon and hotel proprietors appeared in the county court here today and pleaded not guilty to indictments charging them with selling liquor on Sundays in Atlantic City. Eighty-five dispensers of liquid refreshments were indicted and after the pleas had been entered bail in each case was fixed at $1,000. The defendants will be placed on trial probably in December before Judge Higbee. Many of those indicted took the proceedings as a joke and broad smiles illuminated the faces of some of them when they were called upon to plead.

Among those who pleaded not guilty were Sigmond Opeikis, proprietor of Kuehnle's Hotel and president of the Board Walk Bank; William Hyman, Hotel Isleworth; John J. Cristy, Clabby Hotel; Victor Freisinger, Old Vienna; James K. Carmack, Hotel Malatesta; Joel Hillman, Rudolph Hotel; Samuel Platt, Atlantic Garden, and Otto Mause, Otto Heildeberg.

WIRE TAPPING SCHEME.

Unearthed in New York—Heavy Bets in Pool Rooms.

New York, Oct. 13.—Racing men learned today of a genuine wire tapping scheme which is reported to have been successfully operated in New York yesterday with a loss to pool room operators of more than $50,000. The scheme was manipulated, it is said, by tapping a telegraph wire from the Louisville, Ky., jockey Club grounds.

According to the story told along Broadway the men interested laid heavy bets in all the pool rooms on a horse named Rudolfo. Care was taken to select a horse that sold at short odds so as to distract any suspicion. When the report came in to the various pool rooms it was found that Rudolfo had won. All tickets were cashed in due time and the winners departed with large sums.

AT RALEIGH NEXT.

Dr. W. A. Graham President of the Southern Agricultural Workers.

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 13.—Raleigh, N. C., was today selected as the next meeting place of the Southern Agricultural Workers' Association. The convention also selected a North Carolinian, Dr. W. A. Graham, president.

Other officers elected were: Dr. W. R. Dodson, of Louisiana, and Dr. W. M. Reggs, of South Carolina, vice-president; Dr. B. W. Kilgore, North Carolina, secretary and treasurer, and Miss Mary S. Birdsong, North Carolina, assistant secretary.

A resolution adopted urged railroads to reduce rates on registered live stock, favored uniform quarantine laws, and called on farmers to hold the remainder of their cotton crop for better prices.

PAY CLERK GIBBONS

North Carolinian Declared a Deserter from United States Navy

Washington, Oct. 13.—Formally declared a deserted from the Navy, Pay Clerk Charles A. Gibbons, of the armored cruiser California, whose accounts the authorities say they have discovered a shortage of $2,000, is being sought by the naval authorities on both charges. Gibbons was on leave when the loss of the ship's funds was discovered and his leave has expired.

Rear Admiral Thomas, commandant of the Pacific fleet, notified the Navy Department of the facts and the Department of Justice was requested to apprehend Gibbons, who is bonded for twice the amount of the alleged shortage. Gibbons is a native of North Carolina.

New Orleans, Oct. 13.—A man giving the name of Francis Mohler, who claims to be a member of a millionaire Pittsburg family, a graduate of Princeton University and a second-year student at West Point, now on a furlough, and his intimate companion of three months, Miss Alice A. Black, an 18-year-old girl of Colorado Springs, Colo., were held in bonds of $10,000 each here today on charges of forgery.

CHINESE REBELS WILL FIGHT ARMY

the revolution is successful, left here early this month on a lecture tour. He is spreading the gospel of republicanism to his fellow countrymen in America, and his campaign is being conducted under the auspices of the Young China Association. Speaking to a Chinese gathering at Reno about ten days ago, the Chinese exile said that he soon would return to China, despite the fact that a heavy price had been placed on his head.

Leader Going to Chicago.

Chicago, October 13.—Dr. Sun Yat Sen, leader of the Revolutionaries in China, and in line for the Presidency there if the uprising should be successful, will be in Chicago tomorrow and will address his compatriots here on behalf of the effort to overthrow the government in the mother country, it was announced tonight.

The announcement followed a declaration that Dr. Sun was in China, and that V. DeSieu, secretary and head of the Young Association here, had received a cablegram less than three days ago from the doctor in Shangnai. Attempts were made to conceal the facts that the Revolutionist was in America, and to divert publicity from his movements.

Confronted by reports that Dr. Sun was known to be in America, V. DeSieu finally admitted his first declaration was untrue. He intimated that Dr. Sun was either in St. Louis or Kansas City today, spreading the propaganda of revolt and seeking funds to finance the movement.

The Young China Association has a large membership here and has contributed heavily to the fund backing the uprising.

FARMERS IN COLUMBUS.

Tackle Problem of High Cost of Living—Mr. Hayes.

Columbus, O., Oct. 13.—Closer organizations of the farmers of this country for the purpose of relegating unearned profits and putting the producer and the consumer nearer together was advanced as the only possible solution of the high cost of living problem at the opening of today's session of the Farmers' National Congress here. Pooling of agricultural interests to the end of cementing farmers for the wielding of larger influences for legislation in accord with these interests was strongly advocated.

Emphatic appeal was made by many delegates this morning for the adoption of resolutions memorializing Congress to provide a parcels post and establish a Federal good roads bureau.

The conserving of the national farmers congress into a national country life federation modeled somewhat after the plan of the American Federation of Labor was proposed today by Assistant Secretary of Agriculture Willet M. Hayes in an address before the annual meeting of the congress in Columbus.

Mr. Hayes' suggestion is the outgrowth of work he has been carrying on in the Agricultural Department toward country life development, and of the sentiment aroused by President Roosevelt's country life commission.

Mr. Hayes suggested a change in the constitution of the association which would establish a federation similar to the German agricultural society, a powerful factor in German rural life.

The plan contemplates a body made up of delegates from all State federations and farmers' associations, together with representatives of colleges, experiment stations and National organizations in any way associated with the improving of the conditions of farm living.

A DESERVED RECOGNITION.

Miss Bays Presented Lot in Montreat, N. C., for Summer Home.

Charlotte, N. C., Oct. 13.—One of the expressions of appreciation to Miss Mamie Bays, on account of her newspaper work at Montreat the past season, from Mountain Retreat Association, was the gift of a lot at Montreat, upon which to erect a Summer home, according to the News this afternoon, which says:

"Miss Bays' correspondence from Montreat included leading papers in every Southern State and several publications in Northern cities. When her work was over the Montreat Association waited upon Miss Bays and presented her with a deed to one of the choicest lots at Montreat.

"Miss Bays is known throughout the church courts of the Presbyterian, as well as the Methodist conference for her exceptional ability as a reporter. She has judgment as well as ability, and is a clear and concise writer.

NASHVILLE'S NEW MAYOR.

Democratic Nominee Was Successful—Negro Alderman Elected.

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 13. — Mayor Hilary E. Howse, heading the Democratic ticket, was re-elected mayor of Nashville in yesterday's city election over Dr. W. C. Gillespie, so-called law enforcement candidate, by 2,364 votes. The entire Howse ticket for the main city offices was elected but a few primary nominees for council lost their seats, among the number being J. H. Acklen, State game warden. There was no trouble.

For the first time in over 25 years, Nashville elected a negro city councilman, Dr. S. P. Harris, in the Third ward.

One of the last negro councilmen was J. C. Napier, now register of the United States treasury. Harris was running in opposition to the Democratic primary nominee.

Is the World Growing Better?

Many things go to prove that it is. The way thousands are trying to help others is proof. Among them is Mrs. W. W. Gould, of Pittsfield, N. H. Finding good health by taking Electric Bitters, she now advises other sufferers, everywhere, to take them. "For years I suffered with stomach and kidney trouble," she writes. "Every medicine I used failed till I took Electric Bitters. But this great remedy helped me wonderfully." They'll help any woman. They're the best tonic and finest liver and kidney remedy that's made. Try them. You'll see. 50c at R. R. Bellamy's.

BATH TUB TRUST LOSES.

Government Wins on Every Point in Baltimore Case.

Baltimore, Oct. 13.—A sweeping decision in favor of the government in its dissolution suit against the Standard Sanitary Construction Company and others known as the "Bath Tub Trust," was rendered in the United States Circuit Court here today by Judge John C. Rose with Judge Pritchard concurring. Judge Goff dissented.

Edwin P. Grosvenor, special assistant to the United States attorney general, and United States District Attorney John Philip Hill, of Baltimore, who conducted the case for the government, stated that the decision sustained the government's contention at every point. The action was brought under the Sherman anti-trust law and will be carried directly to the Supreme Court of the United States by the defendants.

The case hinged upon the right of Edward L. Wayman, patentee of an enamel dredger used in the manufacture of the products of the defendant companies, to sell licenses for the exclusive use of the dredger. The court held that Wayman is as much subject to the laws governing monopolies as any other man, and that while he has the right to exclude others from making use of his patents, he cannot "sell indulgences" in violation of the anti-trust act.

The case decided thus is separate from the criminal action now pending at Detroit, but concerns the same matter and is against the same principals.

WANT TORPEDO FLOTILLA.

Richmond Desires It for Water Ways Convention.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 13.—A joint telegram was sent to Federal Senators Martin and Swanson today by Governor Mann, Mayor Richardson and Vice President Carrington, of the Chamber of Commerce, asking the Senators to use their influence with the Secretary of the Navy to have the torpedo flotilla now stationed in Hampton Roads, at Richmond during the meeting here of the Atlantic Deeper Waterways Convention, October 18th to 20th inclusive.

YOU MAY HAVE A PULL

with the Dentist, but unless he has a gentle one with you, it is likely you will suffer. Suffering and pain are banished from our establishment. Painless extracting is one of our specialties but we also practice all branches of Dentistry to the satisfaction of our patrons. And they are pleased with our charges as well as with our work. May we have your Dental work in future?

HOW DOLLARS GROW

Seeds never grow until planted. Dollars do not increase unless they are set to work earning interest. If you wish to have a fortune grow you would set your dollars to work by opings account at our bank. Backed by a bank book you are independent of the whole world. You need ask favors of nobody if you have a comfortable sum in the bank. Resolve to make yourself independent by starting a savings account now. A dollar or two will do.

4 Per Cent. Paid on Savings.
